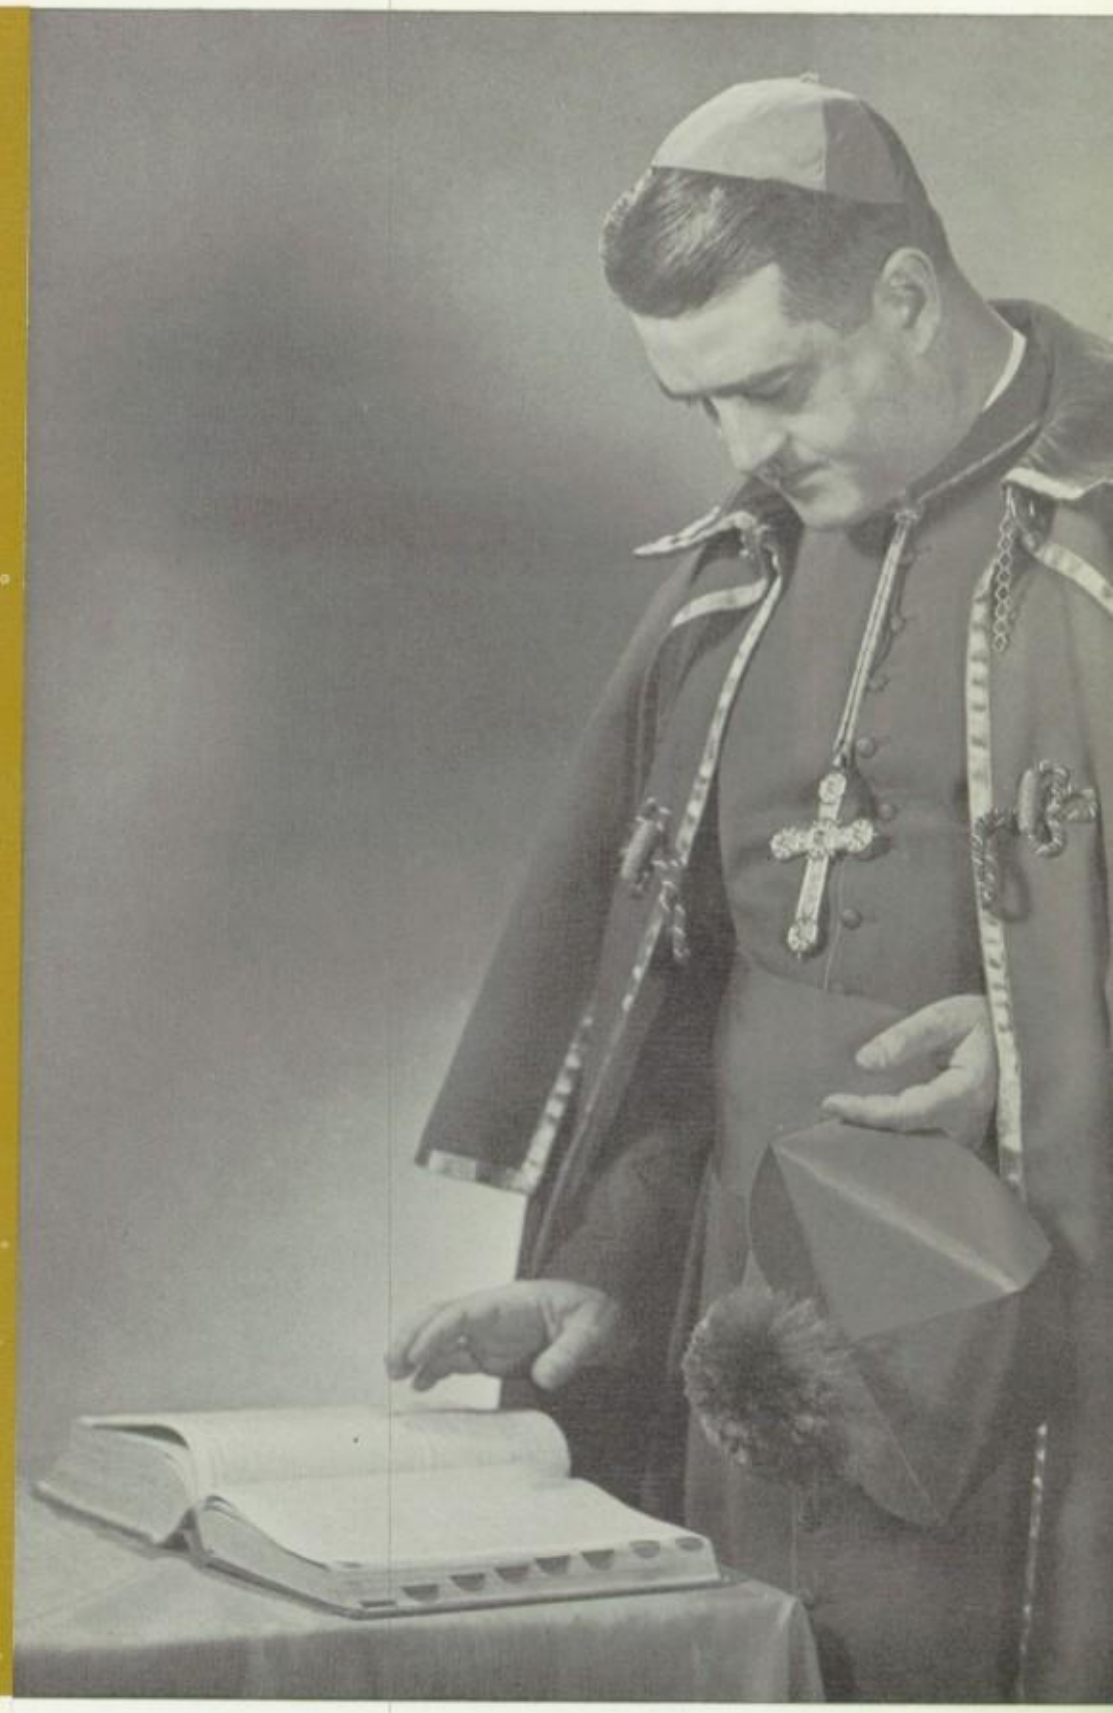
BILL POOLE

"I never shared the contention that our schools on any level had proved notably deficient in turning out people appreciative of the intellectual life. I never went along with the thesis of some who seemed to feel that our schools had 'let us down' by a failure to produce competent intellectuals. . . .

"Our schools are turning out people who, whatever their work may be, have authentic intellectual interests: men who are quite content to work as insurance men, furniture salesmen or at other useful occupations to earn their living, but who never make the mistake of supposing that's why they came into the world: people who are nourished by intellectual pursuits and live by something else. And I think our schools have turned out and do turn out a very notable number of this group and that these are the best intellectual leaven of the good society."

BISHOP JOHN J. WRIGHT



As we move to college campuses across the nation, reflection arouses a sense of gratitude. We are proud to have been guided by the educational ideals of Our Bishop during our high school days.

We are convinced of the fundamental value of our high school education and we take this opportunity to recall our senior year in the light of these educational ideals of Our Bishop, His Excellency John J. Wright.

"Many young people in our diocese integrate their studies by religion and morality learned in the classrooms of Catholic schools. This is the ideal means of providing for the formation of young people, especially when supplemented and supported by a truly Christian spirit at home. In pursuit of this ideal, the clergy and laity of our diocese have built a school system, in the authentic American and Catholic tradition, of which we are justly proud. We have vowed ourselves to the constant increase and improvement of that system, whatever the difficulties or odds against us. It is my conviction that the Catholic school, made even more strong in the face of certain pressures and prejudices of the moment, is about to enter on a new chapter of even greater excellence in the service of God and country."

The educational ideals of our Bishop have been the inspiration and guide of our high school days.

The educational practices of our Principals have been the forces materializing these ideals.

With a sense of honor and privilege, and in a spirit of respect and gratitude we, the graduating class of 1962, dedicate this yearbook to our Bishop, His Excellency John J. Wright, and to our Principal, Brother F. Alfred, and our former Principal, Brother Giles Vincent.

"In another generation, when the fate of the world, the fate of civilization, the relations between church and state and like questions depended on the intelligence and will of a king or a prince, a tremendous amount of talent and effort was devoted to the proper formation of the mind and the interests of the young king or prince . . . In an age of democracy the situation is quite different.

"If it be true that the decisions of the future must be made by voters, by majorities expressing themselves and minorities pressing for recognition of their points of view, then a supreme business of the future is the formation of the minds and interests of the new king, the multi-headed Dauphin that is a democracy, a crowd organized and given direction by its education."

SOUTH HILLS
CATHOLIC

Student Life

"THE DIFFICULTIES OF THE INTELLECTUAL VOCATION IN THE SERVICE OF THE CHURCH ARE MANY AND FAMILIAR; GOOD WORKS SOMETIMES SEEM SO MUCH MORE EASY THAN THE LONG, HARD ROAD OF STUDY. CONCENTRATED LEARNING AND DEDICATED DEFENSE, BY WRITTEN AND SPOKEN WORD, OF THE TRUTH TAUGHT US BY THE DIVINE INTELLECTUAL, THE INCARNATE WORD OF GOD."

BISHOP JOHN J. WRIGHT.

"Religion must supplement not replace academic subjects."

Development of a spiritually vigorous student is the fundamental concern of the school. Mathematics, science, social studies, and language programs which develop the intellectual resources of the student are supplemented by formal training in basic Catholic Ideals. Through this general program, together with the activities of the Third Order of St. Francis and the Archconfraternity of the Divine Child, the student is directed toward becoming an effective part of the community and an exemplary Catholic citizen.

Senior students receive communion during the annual retreat. The Mass opening school, October and May spiritual assemblies, and the Baccalaureate Mass supplement the three days of annual retreat.

"This is second grade work," says Brother Regis jokingly to Ted Bartek and Tom Bowman members of the Junior Advanced Mathematics class. Advanced Mathematics courses are presently a feature of the regular curriculum.

. .Theology courses nourish the Human Hope."

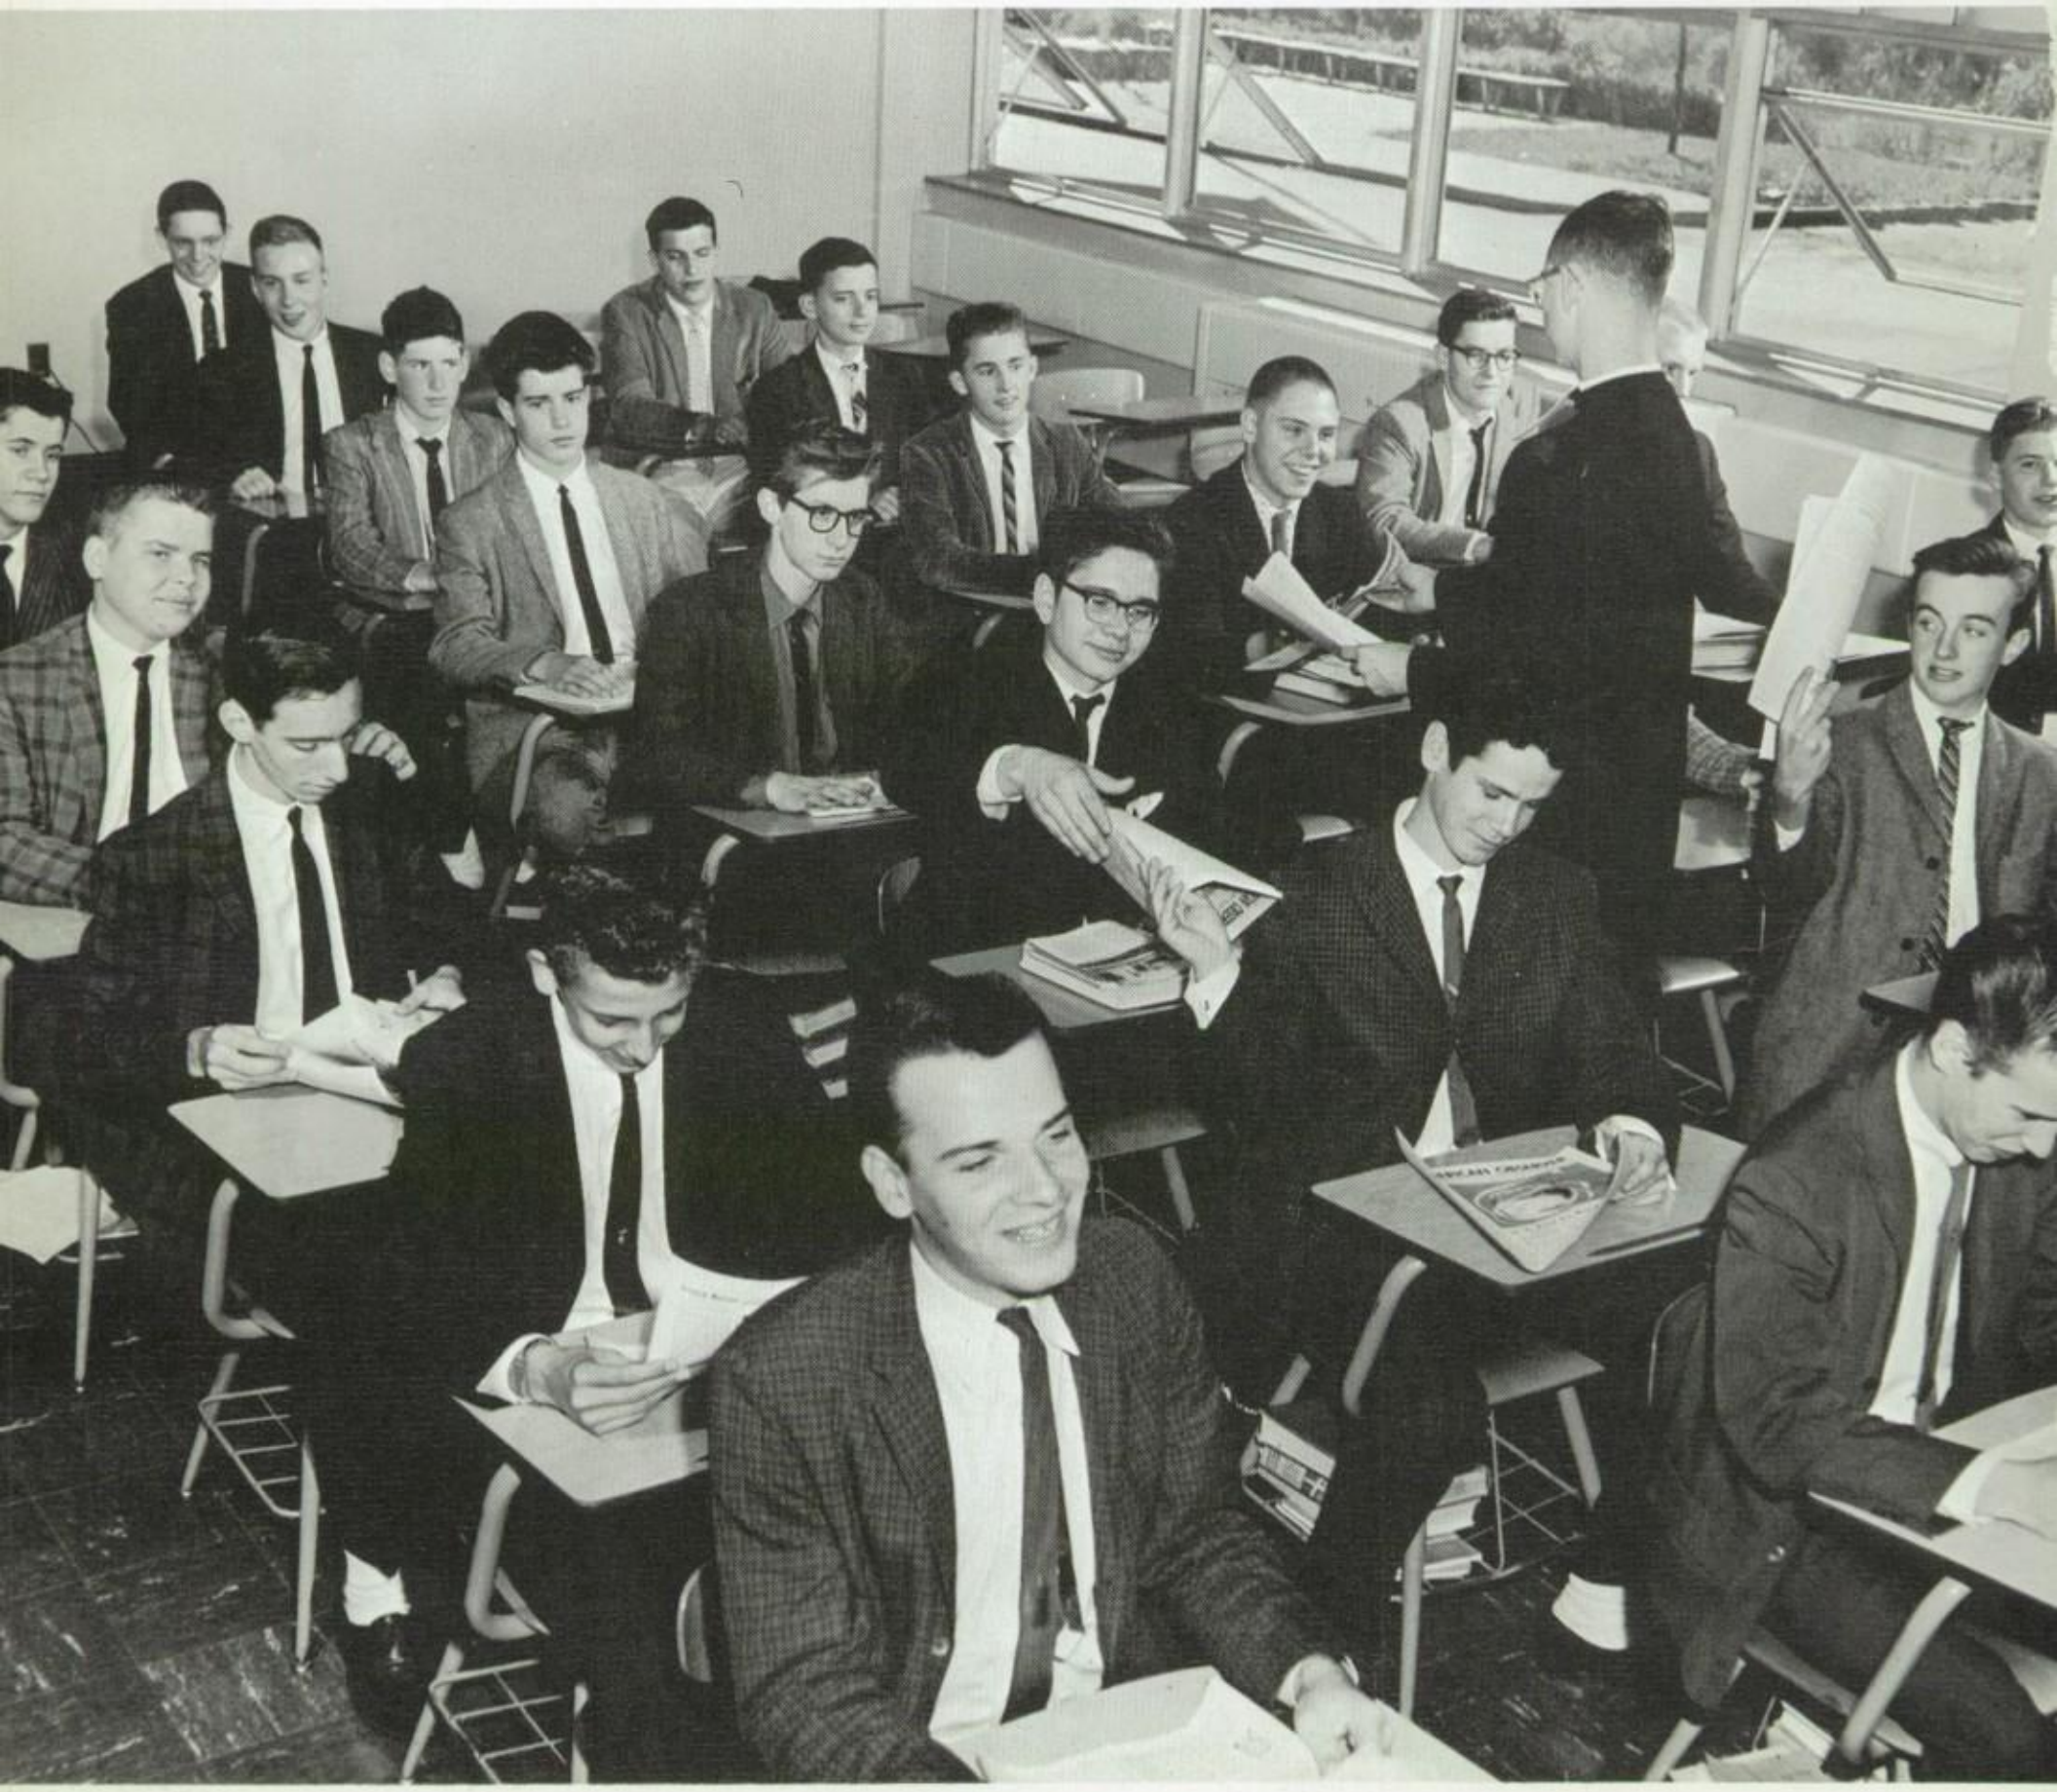
Having chosen a topic for their religion project, Phil Walsh, Jim Boehm, and Joe Hegedus receive a few particulars from their homeroom moderator, Brother Regis.

Experience . . .

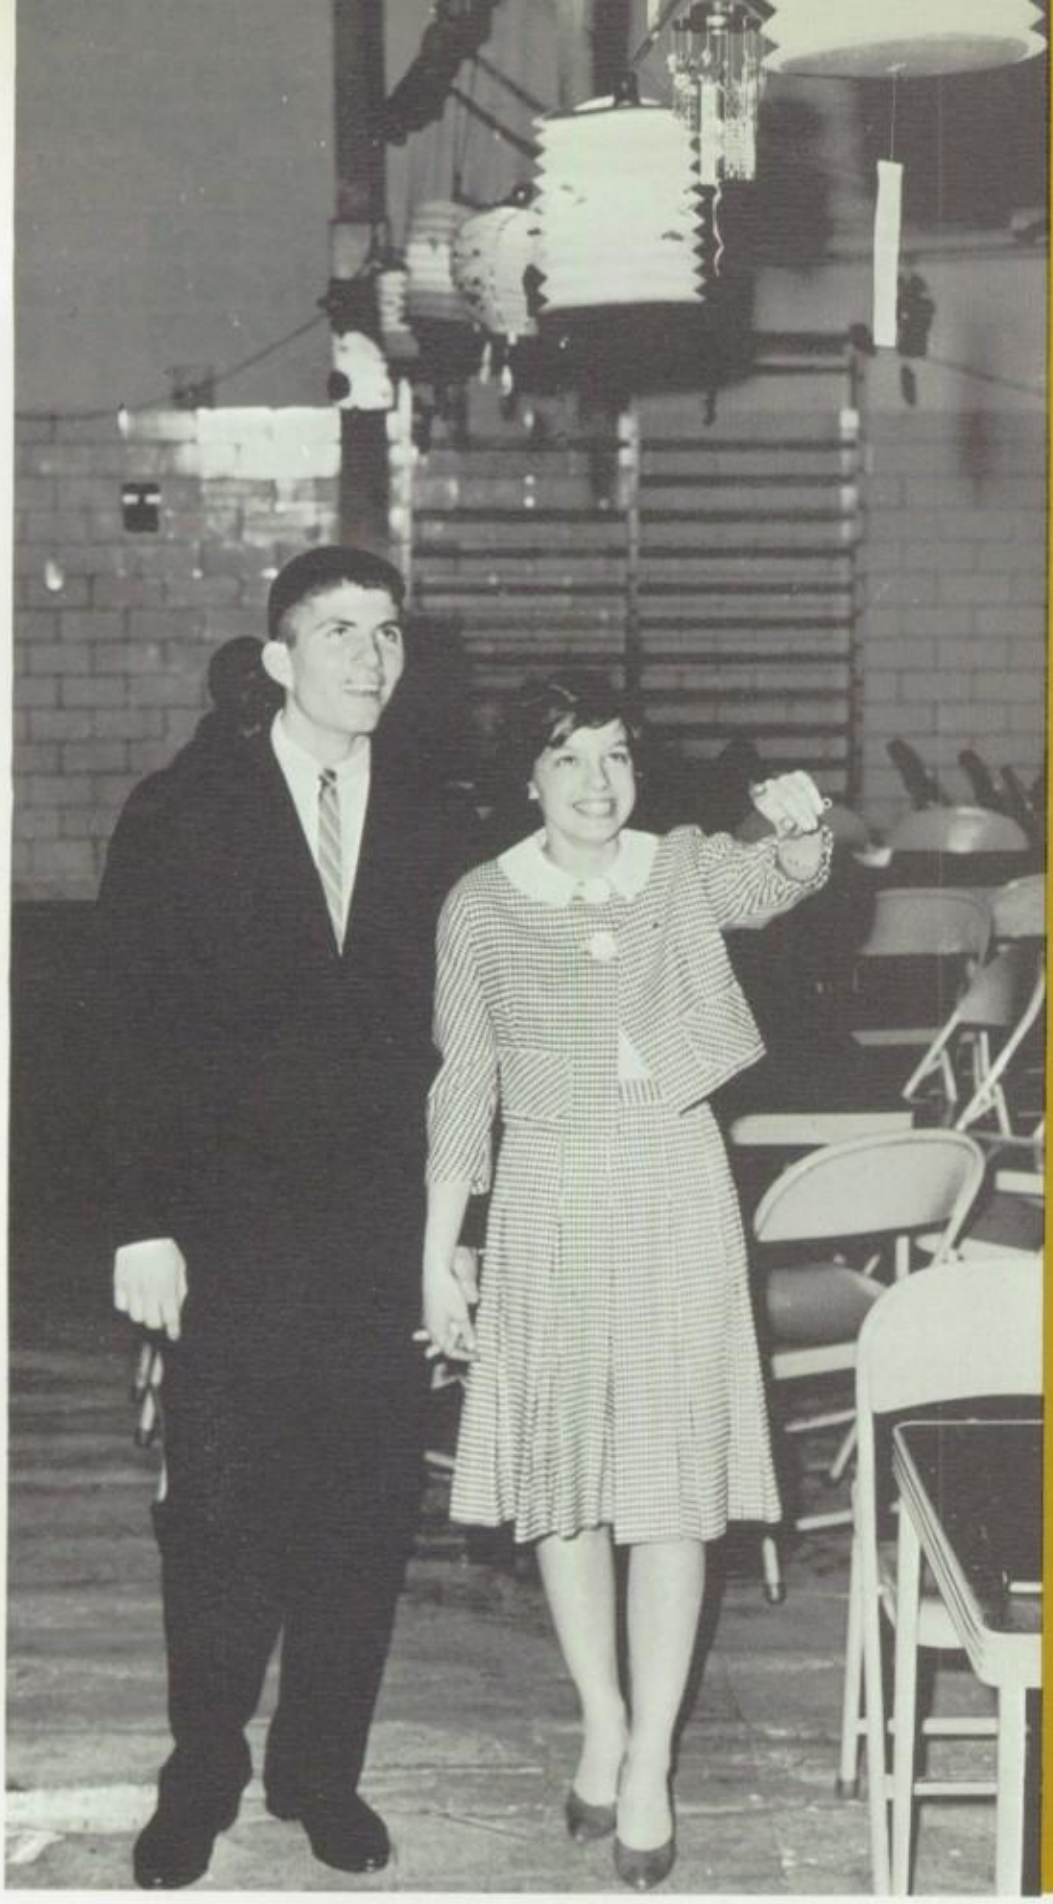
Class periods are often arranged to permit time for individual instruction following regular group teaching. Faculty members are also available to render individual assistance after regular school hours. This personal aid is a source of encouragement to the student as well as a means of additional clarification of subject matter.

"Study of History develops sympathy, the natural predisposition to charity."

A four-year program of Social Studies equips the student with a solid foundation of Democratic ideals. History courses and studies in Problems of Democracy are supplemented by the practical knowledge that the History Honor and Forensic Honor Societies afford.



Brother Charles uses newsletter, "American Observer," to arouse the interest of Junior Science D.



An enriched program of social activities has become much a part of student life. The Student Association, through a network of committees, sponsors various athletic rallies and social dances for the benefit of the student body.

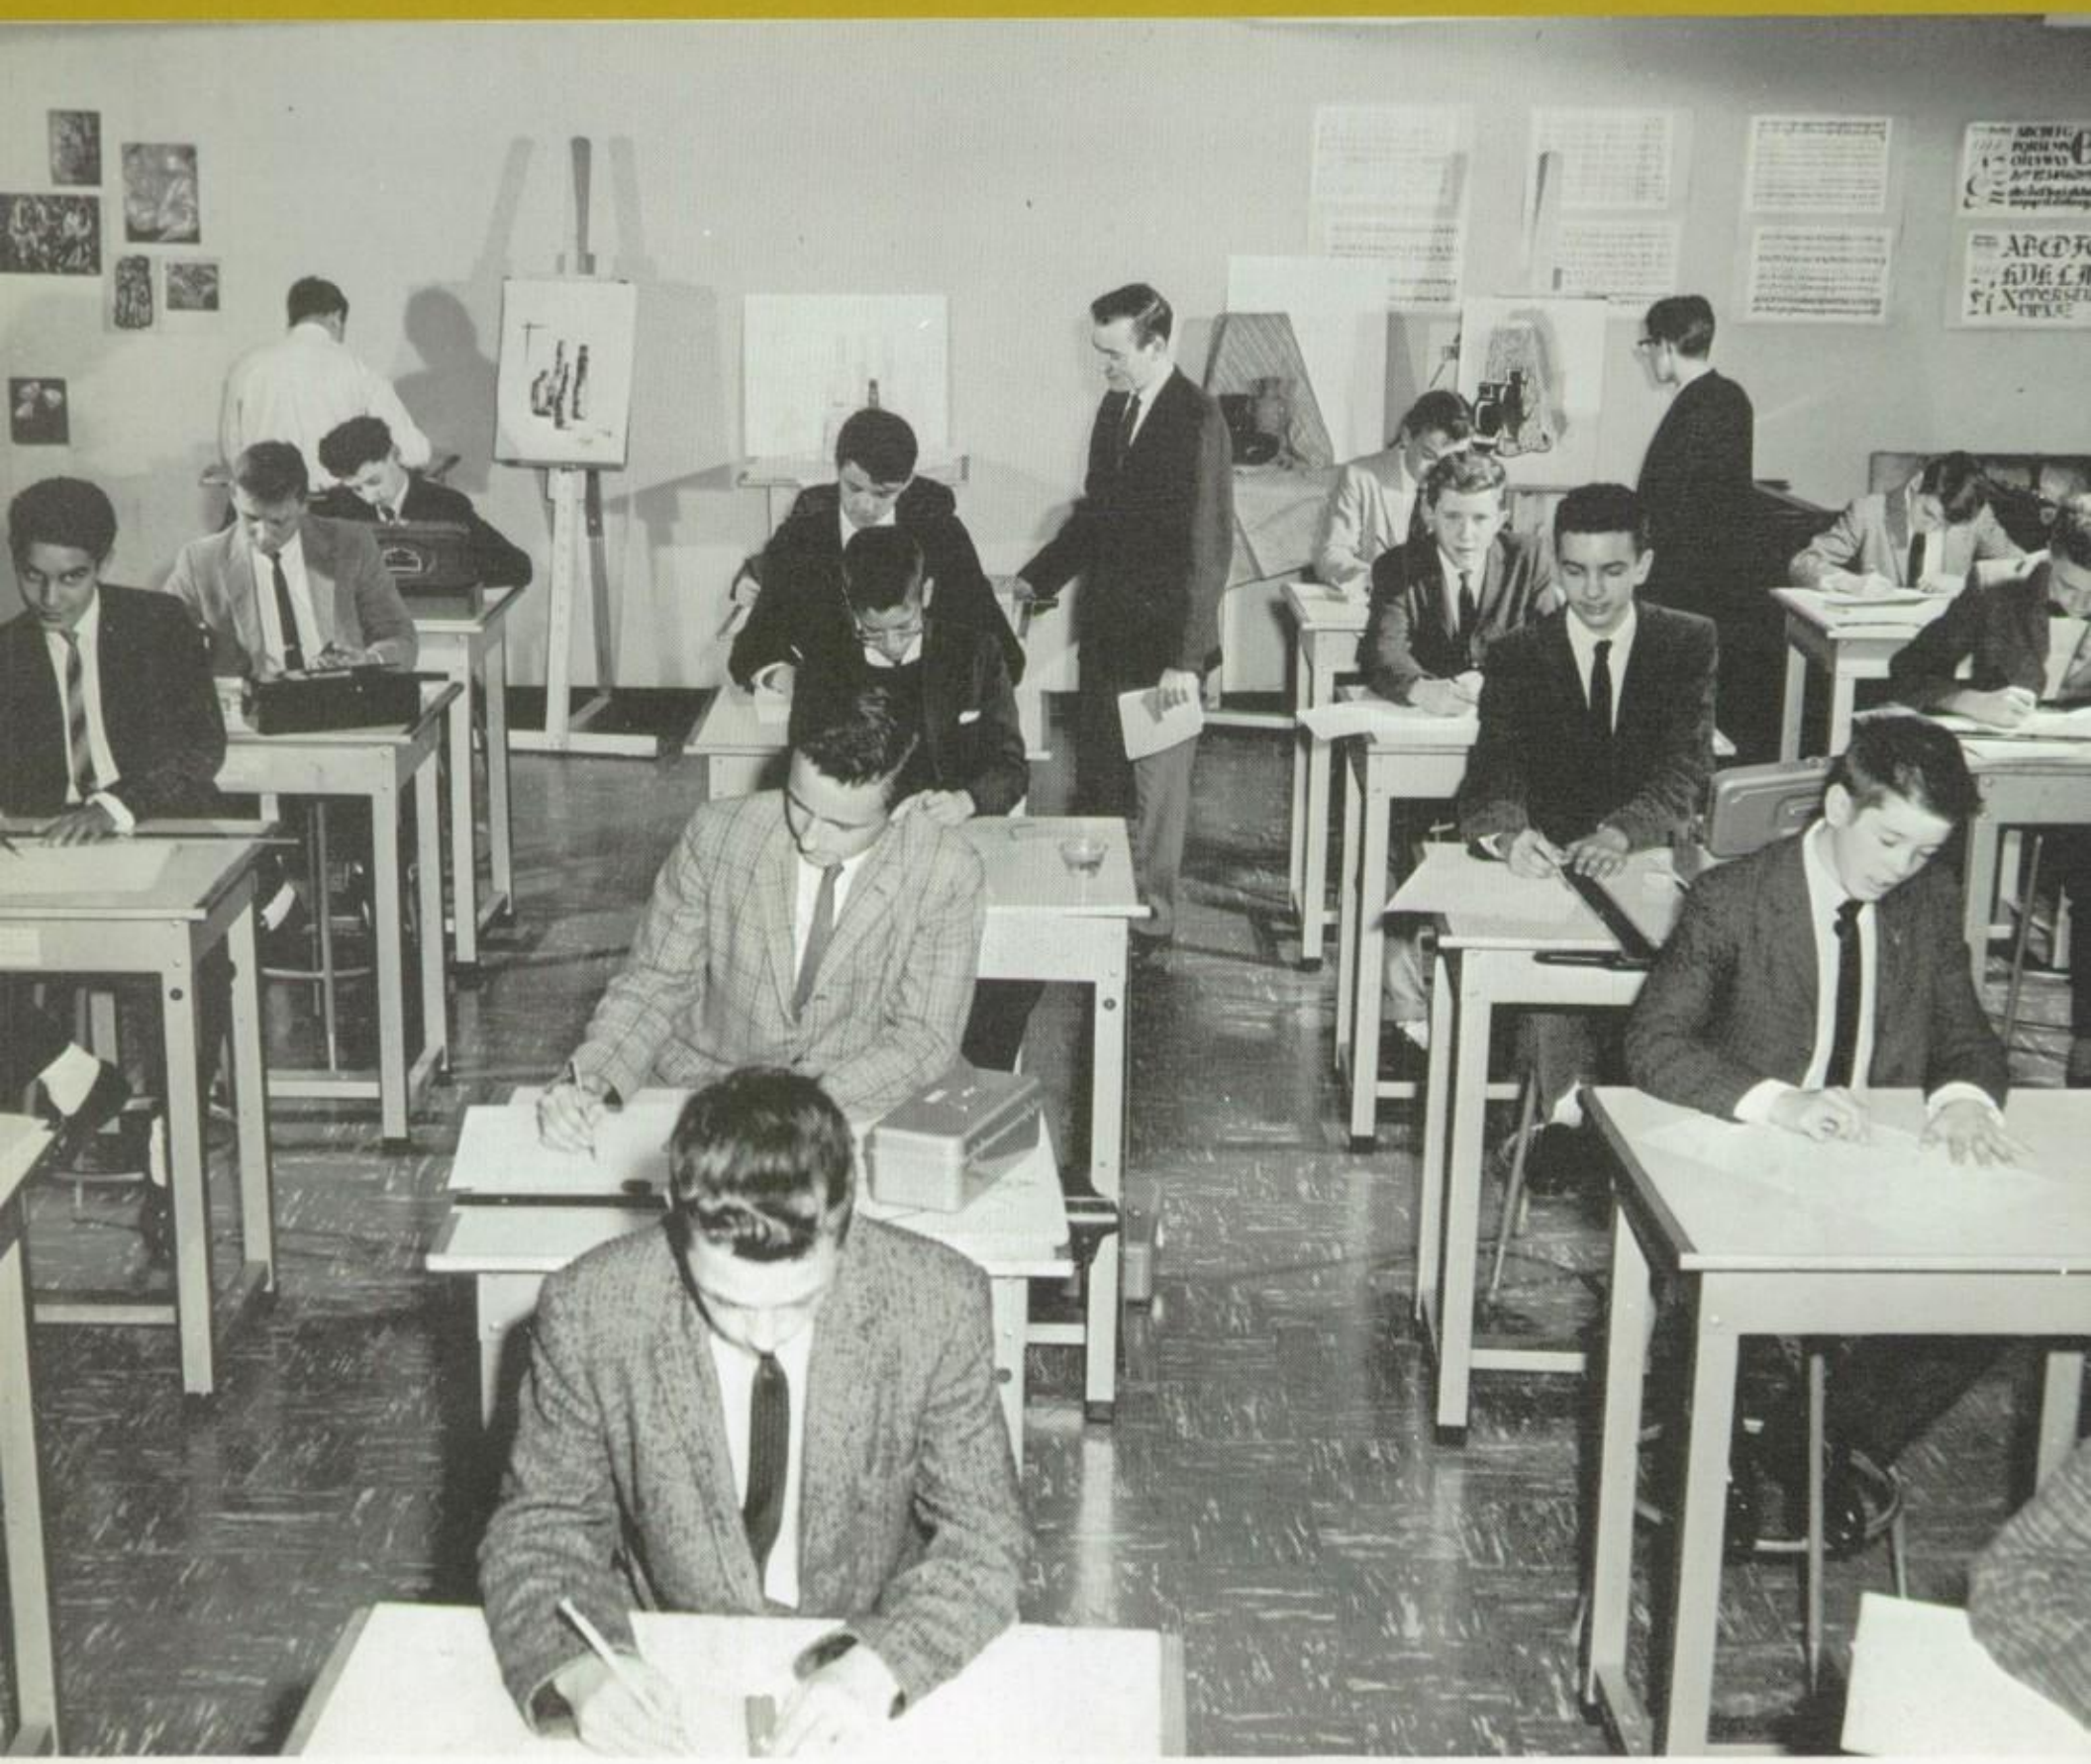
Frank Tetlow and his date pause to enjoy the gay decorations of "Japanese Moonglow." This Spirit Committee sponsored dance was a highlight of the 1961 social year.

Harry Pitchok leads Senior Science A in a demonstration of Rebel spirit. Individual classes demonstrated at an unprecedented pep-rally before the 1961 South-Central Football Contest. The Knights lost, however, 13-6.

"Science is concerned with truth,

as art with beauty, . . .

Mr. McKenna gives a professional suggestion to an inexperienced artist of Freshman D. Art is an elective subject available to all students on all levels.



Laboratory work gives energetic students experience in applying the principles learned in the lecture room. After first-year general science, students advance to biology, chemistry, and physics in successive years, thereby experiencing science in various forms. The Science Club and the Science Honor Society provide opportunities for capable students to do further investigations in the realm of science.

Brother Thomas gives some after-school direction to Tom Dunham in the practical application of a physics problem.

Brother Nicholas moderates the science projects of club member Robert Lodge and club president Richard Greb. Saturday afternoons and after-class hours are usual times for science club activities. Members have access to all school facilities.

. . . We cannot encounter new expressions of truth or beauty without enthusiasm, gratitude and reverence."

"YOU HAVE A CALL TO EXCELLENCE ALL YOUR OWN AS CATHOLIC CHRISTIANS AND IT URGES YOU FORWARD TOWARD ANOTHER HORIZON THAN THAT OF MERE COMPETENCE. IT IS THE HORIZON OF THE EVER-INCREASING MORAL PERFECTION WHICH YOU MUST SEEK TO DEVELOP, TOGETHER WITH ERUDITION AND SKILL, IN YOUR STUDENTS."

BISHOP JOHN J. WRIGHT.

VERY REVEREND MONSIGNOR
JOHN B. McDOWELL
Diocesan Superintendent of Schools

Directing the educational policies in the Pittsburgh Diocese is Monsignor John B. McDowell. Since taking on the responsibilities of Superintendent of Schools in 1955, the Monsignor has not neglected to maintain high standards while he expanded the school system. His diligent work has proven invaluable in materializing the educational ideals of His Excellency Bishop John J. Wright and has been appreciated by the students of South Hills Catholic.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Mr. John Cicco, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, formerly taught at South Hills Catholic from 1958 to 1960. During this time he was also head coach of the rifle team and assistant football coach. Mr. Cicco has set a fine example for the Catholic lay teachers of the diocese, and we, the seniors, are happy to have been associated with him.

BROTHER F. BERNARD, F.S.C.
Vice-Principal

Brother Bernard has been the vice-principal for the past five years. During the first four he was also in charge of the conduct and activities of the students as Prefect of Discipline. Presently he is devoting all his talents to the office of assistant-principal. The graduating class of 1962 thanks Brother for his fine guidance and personal interest.

BROTHER F. ALFRED, F.S.C.
Principal

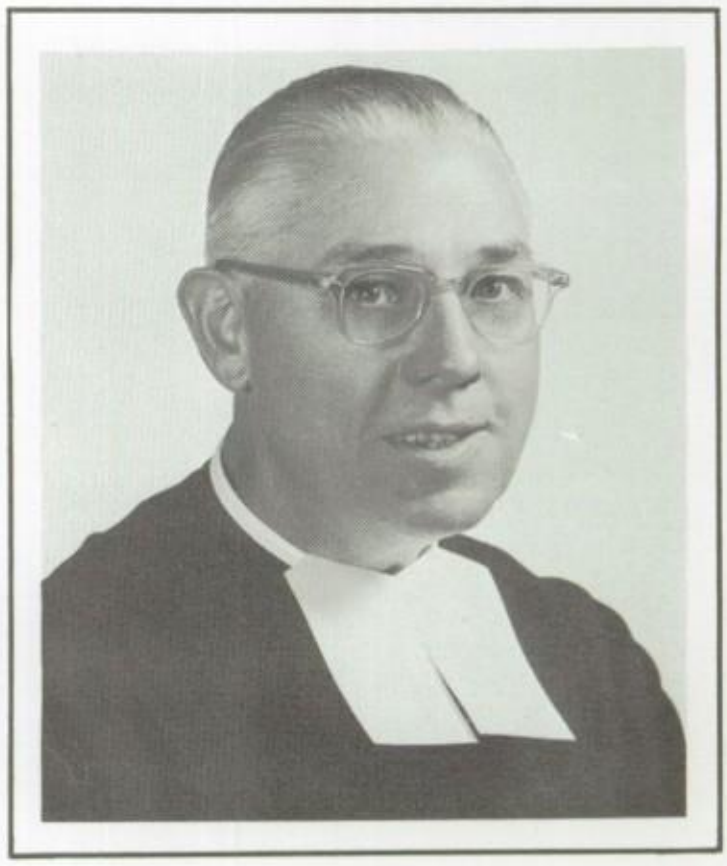
Brother F. Alfred assumed the office of principal in September of 1961. He had just returned from a year of study and travel abroad. Brother has made many original and valuable contributions to school policy; he is easily approachable and is always willing to consider any ideas submitted by the students. Although Brother has been principal for a relatively short period of time, he has earned the respect of both the faculty and the student body with his steady hand and responsible governing.

MR. BERNARD J. POWERS
Athletic Director

Mr. Bernard J. Powers is one of the few members of the original faculty. He assumed the new functions this year of Prefect of Discipline and Athletic Director in addition to his former duties as head football coach and a physical education instructor. His dominating personality commands respect and, at the same time, inspires popularity.

spiritual in education.

A tribute to outstanding educators.

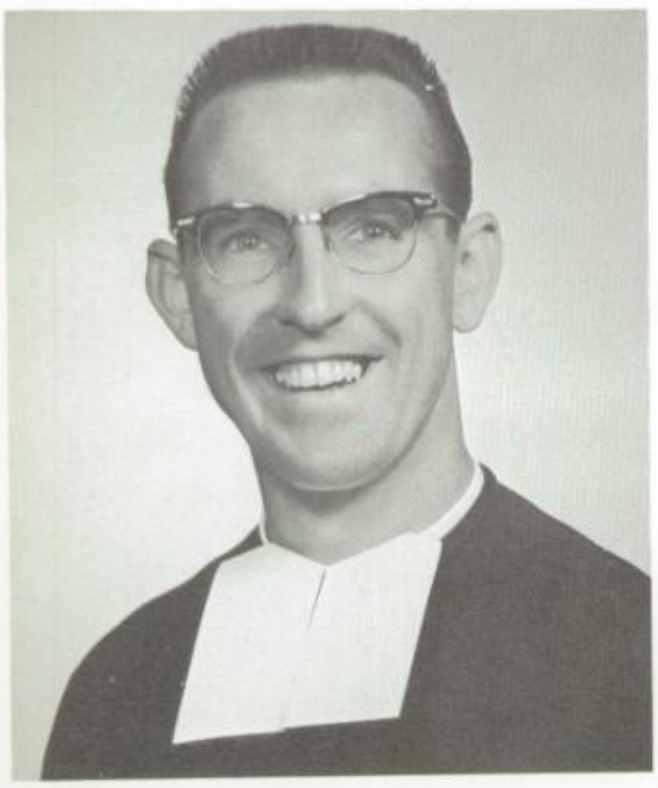


BROTHER GODWIN JOHN, F.S.C.

The graduating class of 1962 is proud to take this opportunity to recall the memory of Brother Godwin John. His excellent sense of humor and universal amiability resulted in his profound influence over the students. Brother had taught Religion and Latin on all levels, Spanish I and II, algebra, general mathematics, and plane geometry. It is with deep regret that we learned of Brother's death last August. May he rest in peace.

BROTHER GILES VINCENT, F.S.C.

Brother Giles Vincent, the first principal of South Hills Catholic, held the office from September of 1956 through June of 1961. Brother was the guiding influence in giving the school its present respected name and high scholastic rank. He was serious and authoritative in business matters, but amiable and congenial in his personal relations with the students. The graduating class of 1962 wishes to convey its thanks to Brother Vincent for his valuable assistance and personal concern during our high school years.



BROTHER GERARD RONALD, F.S.C.

Brother Ronald was beginning his second year on the faculty when he was unexpectedly transferred in October, 1961, to Cumberland, Maryland. Brother taught accounting, Business Law, and Bookkeeping I. He was the moderator of the Student Association, Spirit Committee, and Dramatics. Brother's conviviality and enthusiasm were the source of his extensive popularity. It is to our misfortune that he has been called to another post.

BROTHER D. VINCENT, F.S.C.

Brother D. Vincent has been student counselor for the past three years. In addition to aiding the students through individual counseling services, Brother has sponsored general school testing programs, organized college nights, and published instructive bulletins on college admissions. Throughout the year Brother has taught Latin and Religion in the absence of the regular instructors.

BROTHER GODFREY JOHN, F.S.C.

Brother Godfrey John is the bursar of the Brothers' community and the manager of the bookstore. He also teaches Religion IV, trigonometry, and physics. His sparkling personality will linger in the memory of the members of the graduating class.

MRS. JAMES PALMER

The students of South Hills Catholic owe Mrs. James Palmer a deep debt of gratitude. During the past six years she has devoted herself unselfishly to the secretarial service of the school, while maintaining a personal interest in the members of the student body. "Angie" has become a tradition with the students. We are honored to have known her and wish to convey our sincerest appreciation to her.

Even during their time of leisure, the Christian Brothers are never far from the service of the students. The Brothers devote their entire lives to the service of God through study and the education of young Catholic men.

"IT WAS NOT IN ORDER THAT YOU MIGHT BE MEDIOCRE MORAL EQUALS OF THE SPIRITUALLY STARVED WHO HAVE SCANT FAITH, FAINT HOPE, AND FRIGID CHARITY—THAT SO MUCH WAS DEVISED BY HEAVEN AND SUFFERED ON EARTH IN YOUR BEHALF. YOU ARE THE HEIRS OF TWENTY CATHOLIC CENTURIES OF APOSTLES AND MARTYRS, CONFESSORS AND SAINTS. YOU ARE THE SONS OF PRAYERS AND OF SPIRITUAL YEARNINGS, OF DIVINE HOPES . . ."

BISHOP JOHN J. WRIGHT.

HONOR STUDENTS

"It is not the physical setting of the school that makes it a good educational institution; it is the amount of mental application that goes on in the school. . . . Study all those things that will make you good Catholic leaders in the future. . . . If I read the papers at the end of the school year and see that this school has won football, basketball, and track championships, I will be pleased. But if there were few scholastic scholarships won by the students of this school, I will consider it a waste."

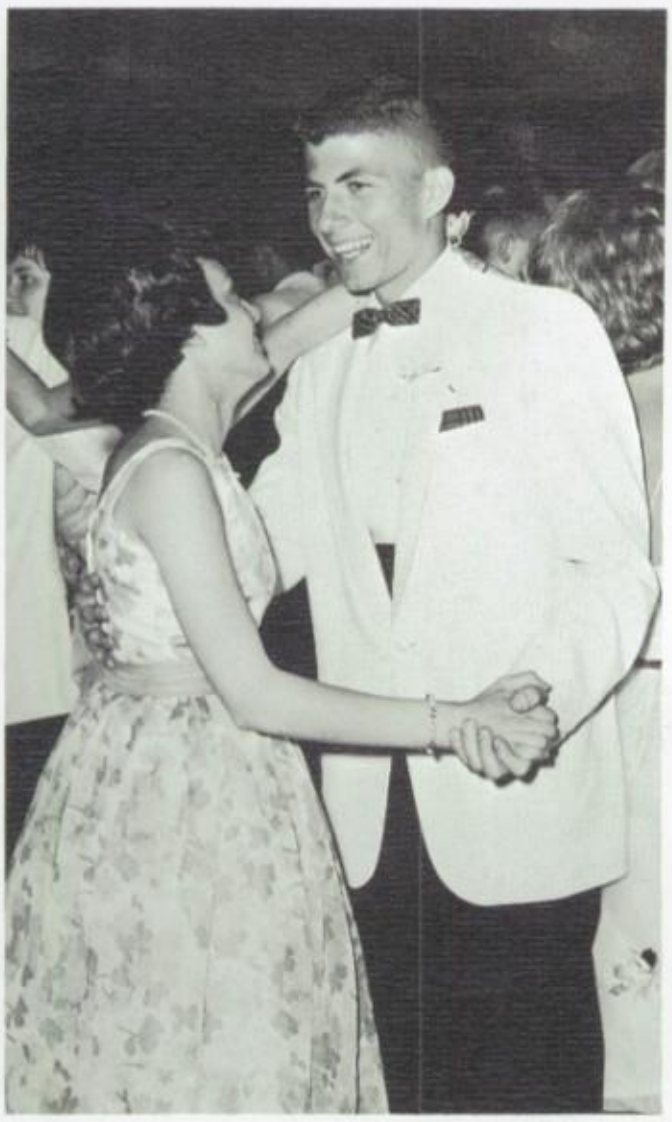
Peggy Cleary, Jim Comerford, Donna Miller, John Walton, Gerry Persinger, Harry Verlato, Lynn Kowacz, and Chuck Taylor skip to the bunny-hop.



Mary Mittlehauser and Wayne DeLuca were chosen Queen and King of the Senior Prom.

Frank Tetlow and Mary Beth Palonis dance to the music of Tommy Carlyn's Band.

"MISTY"— The Senior Prom

"Misty," the Senior Prom, was held at St. Clair Country Club on May 25. Members of the Prom Committee and their dates are (standing) Peggy Brennen, Dale Rettinger, Ray Stephens (Chairman), Marianne Koval; (seated) Jay Macdonald, Ann Hughes, Sandy Bonidie, Dan Giovannitti, Peggy Curran, Dick Reed, Lorraine Carletti, and Mike Buerkle.

Approximately two hundred seniors and their dates attended the top social event of the year. Tommy Carlyn and his swinging band provided music for dancing. The Prom featured the President's dance; and Mary Mittlehauser and Wayne DeLuca were selected Queen and King. Liberty Dress Suit Rentals provided the tuxedoes and Hill's Studio took care of the photography. A new feature of the 1962 prom was a massive after-prom party at Jimmy O'Brien's Clairbrook Inn.

◀ The hokey-pokey is always a big favorite at proms. Dave Vietmeier, Helen Riske, Larry Kwasniewski, and Barbara Honer show how it is done. Dancing at St. Clair Country Club was from 9:00 to 1:00.

Outstanding Senior Social Event, 1962

Aiming at Maturity

Asked about his comment on a humorous passage, Brother Flavian chuckles a witticism to Joseph Persang and Milton Rectenwald of Freshman H.

"TWILIGHT TIME"— The Junior Prom, 1962

"Twilight Time," the 1962 Junior Prom, was held on May 4 at St. Clair Country Club. Preparations and arrangements were made by the Prom Committee. Russ Romero and his orchestra provided the entertainment. The corsages were obtained from Broadway's and Groetsch's flower shops. The results of the Prom Committee's long hours of work were seen in the enjoyment of the 110 couples attending the event.

Members of the "Twilight Time" Committee, with their dates are Terry Mulvihill, Jim Moran, Claude Crandall, Ken Maxcy, and Ed Henry. Brother Bernard directed the committee in its organization of the Junior Prom.

Jack Helbling, Stacie McCloskey, Dave Cusick, Mary Ann Hacket, Dan Madden, and Sue Davis enjoy themselves between dances. The site is the St. Clair Country Club terrrace.

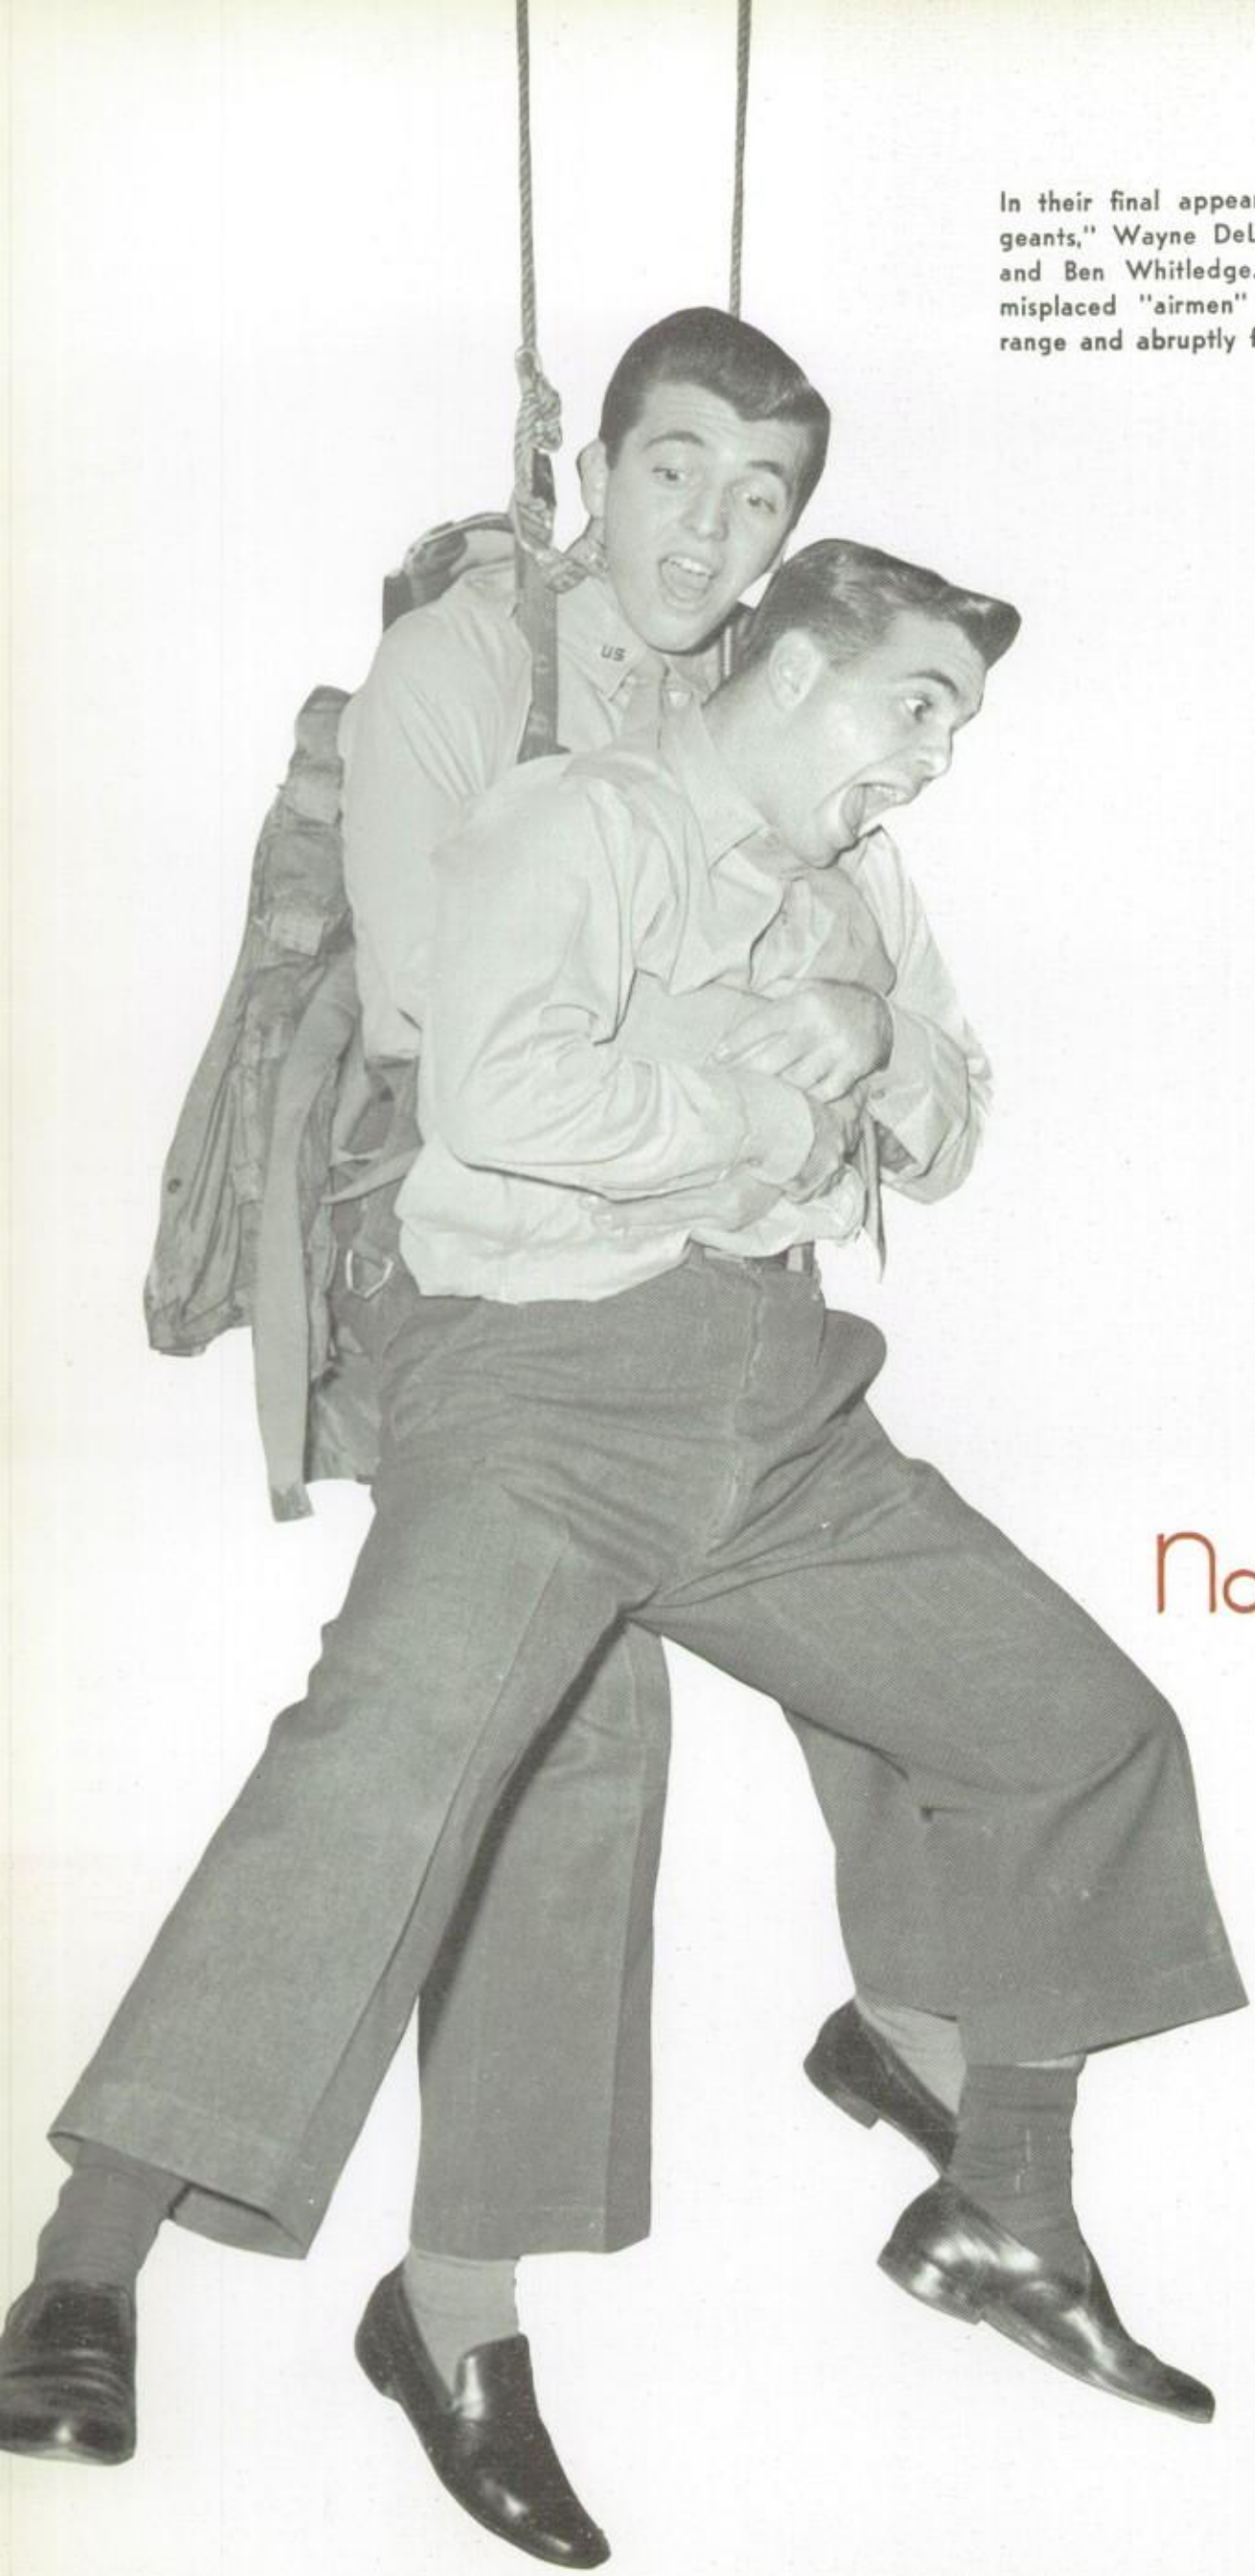
Russ Romero crowns Stacie McCloskey "Queen of the Junior Prom." Jack Helbling was chosen King.

The social highlight of the junior year hosted 110 couples.

Activities

"THE OBJECTIVES OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REMAIN BASICALLY CONSTANT. THEY WILL BE SHAPED IN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY AS ALWAYS, BY THE CONCEPT OF EDUCATION AS THE COMPLETE AND HARMONIOUS DEVELOPMENT OF ALL THE FACULTIES DISTINCTIVE OF MAN, A CONCEPT WHICH INCLUDES OF NECESSITY, INTELLECTUAL AND MORAL, PERSONAL AND SOCIAL, SECULAR AND RELIGIOUS ELEMENTS, ALL OF THESE IN VARYING PROPORTIONS IN VARYING SOCIETIES, BUT EACH OF THEM IN PROPER PART SO LONG AS THE SOCIETY IS TRULY HUMAN."

BISHOP JOHN J. WRIGHT



In their final appearance on the SHC stage in "No Time For Sergeants," Wayne DeLuca and Doug Sortino portrayed Will Stockdale and Ben Whitledge. After a series of comical mishaps, the two misplaced "airmen" mistakenly flew over an atomic bomb testing range and abruptly fluttered to earth.

DRAMATICS:

No Time for Sergeants

Auditions were held in early October for the year's dramatic presentation, "No Time for Sergeants." The cast rehearsed under the direction of Mr. Kennedy three times a week, and daily during the final week, prior to the performances of March 2, 3, and 4. Mr. Ted White assumed the position of technical advisor two weeks before the opening night performance.

Eight seniors and thirty underclassmen joined with nine thespians from Elizabeth Seaton and Saint Francis Academy to form the largest cast in the history of the Drama Club. The presentation was a debut for most of the cast. Dramatics and stage crew moderators were Brother Neal and Brother Brendan, respectively.

A cast party for all members was held backstage the following week and climaxed another successful season for the S H C Drama Club.

During the classification festivities, James Collins (left), army psychiatrist, psyco-analyzed Will Stockdale—or vice versa. James Knepp (top), an Air Force policeman; John Stafford (lower center), an inductee; and Dale Stetzer (top right), as Irvin Blanchard played minor comical roles. Anthony DeSensi played a dual role of corporal and inductee. "No Time For Sergeants" was the first theatrical opportunity for these underclassmen.

Members of the supporting cast, Sheryl Sherman, Richard Mueller, Kathy Parker, Earl McNish, Barbara Becker, Creighton Hogan and James Knepp, pair off for some friendly quips after rehearsal. This was the debut performance for these thespians.

Personal perfection and social development

Richard Sieger takes a break during a pre-play rehearsal with Mary Mittlehauser and Mary Beth Schmitt. These girls were veteran SHC actresses, while Richard made his debut in this performance in the role of Sergeant King.

Don Davis as O'Malley and Doug Sortino as Anthony J. Drexel Biddle give forth with an exhibition of some domestic boxing in the 1961 presentation, "The Happiest Millionaire." Absorbed by the action are Eileen Coulehan as Emma the maid, Wayne DeLuca as John the butler, and Pat Kuntz as Mrs. Biddle. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle's daughter, Cordy, and her fiance Angier Duke, played by Mary Mittlehauser and Mike Jabour, regard the action with dubious enjoyment. Dave LaGaurdia, as Biddle's son, prepares to give assistance. The Biddle farce was successfully produced and directed by Brother William.

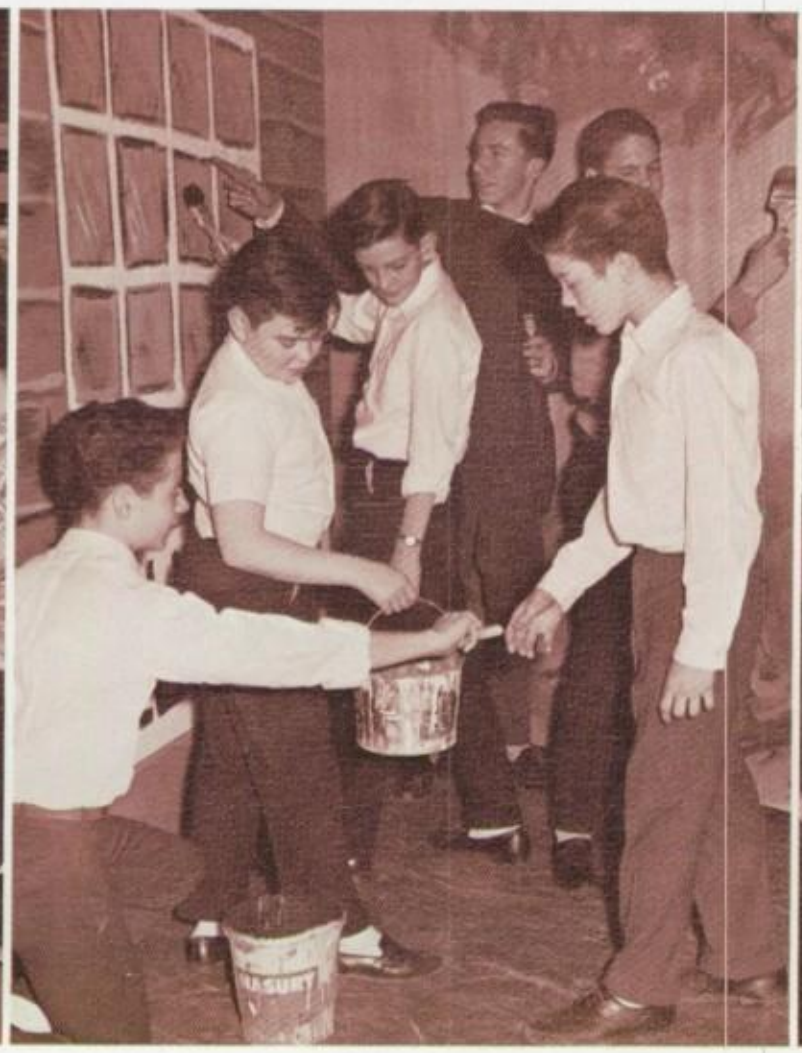
The 11 members of the stage crew built sets, controlled stage lighting, co-ordinated sound effects, and gave assistance as prompters during the performance. Members of this group Thomas Cunningham, Charles Stetzer, Alan Buchta, Thaddeus Stropka, Anthony Dattalo, James Raimar, George Hennessy, and Rory Heenan are under the moderation of Brother Brendan.

ART CLUB AND STAGE CREW

Ray Stephens, Claude Crandall, and Dick Reed, with three years experience on the stage crew, co-ordinate special sound effects during the production of "No Time For Sergeants."

Moderated by Mr. McKenna, the art crew is composed of Den Moran, Ed Hamil, Bill Feeney, Gene Rees, Don Dorsey, Dick Hart, and ten other underclassmen.

Artists Jim Moran, Mike Buerkle, Claude Crandall, and Jay Macdonald made-up a cast of almost fifty—the largest single cast in the drama club's history. Sue Marks and Barbara Becker played minor roles.



QUEENSMAN:

"Emphasis on literature as a means of providing roots to the discussion of contemporary problems."

With galleys and dummy copies in hand, the "Queensman" editorial staff works on the February issue. Studying the pages are Jeff Keown, Steve Griffin, John Henderson, Dan Broderick, Dan McKinley, Brother D. John (Assistant Moderator), Dave Vietmeier, George Dixon, Denis Meadows, and Ken Gianni.

"Queensman" artist James Moran and Sports Editor Kenneth Gianni consult on the final touches of a "Queensman" cartoon. Moran has contributed artwork to the "Queensman" during the past three years.

School photographer, Mike Sproch, is on sideline duty at South Stadium during the South-North game. During the past three years, Mike has worked for both the "Queensman" and "Knight," covering all home and away sports events, intramural activities, Parents' Club functions, and general school activities. His photographs appearing on pages 60 and 86 received Gold Certificates at the Kaufmann Exhibit in February.

During the past year, thirty underclassmen and fifteen seniors contributed to the three editions of the Queensman. Co-editors Denis Meadows and Steve Griffin wrote the feature articles "Strolling Down South" and "Terrace Topics" respectively.

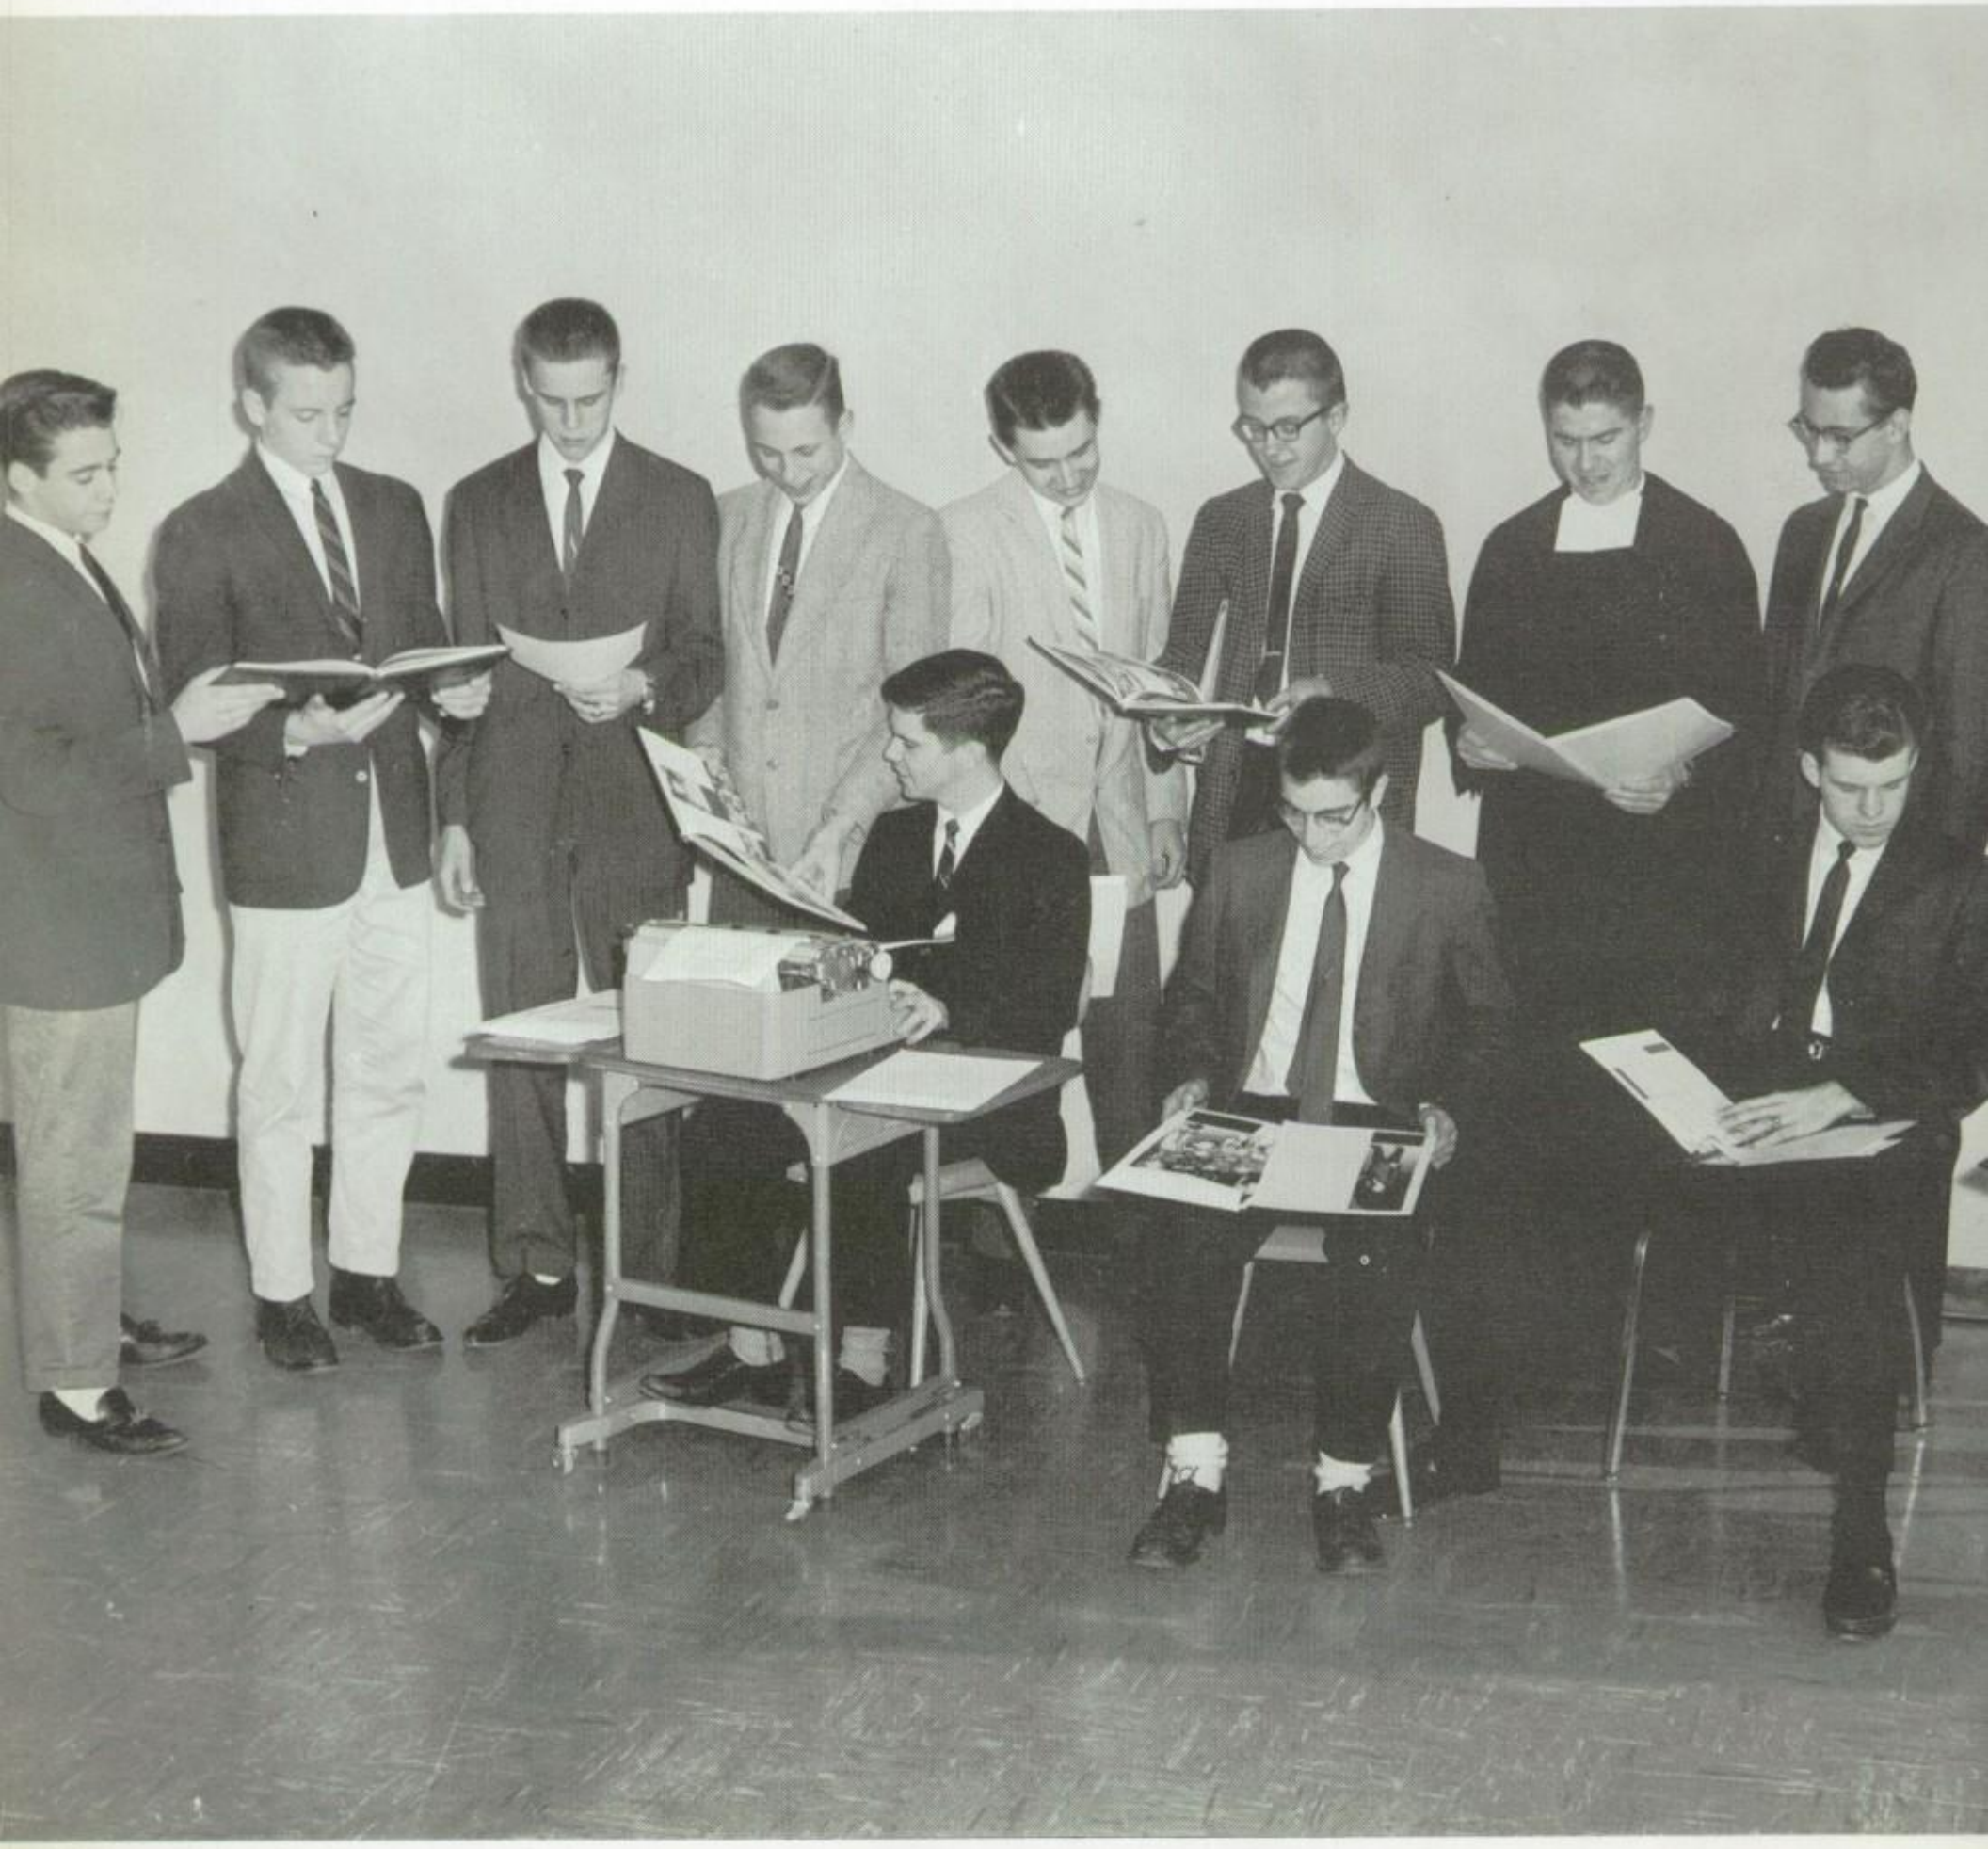
News editors George Dixon and Dan McKinley selected articles on current events and laid out the front page. Ken Gianni, sports editor, covered all athletic events. Dave Vietmeier and Jeff Keown edited special features and composed the editorial page. Dan Broderick and John Henderson covered the school's extra-curricular activities and arranged articles on page three.

The combined efforts of these editors, twenty-five reporters, photographer Mike Sproch, typist Dan Giovannitti and artists Jim Moran and Gene Rees, won for the paper high honors from NSPA, CSPA, and DUSPA.

Preparing copies of the "Queensman" for the mailing list are editors Steve Griffin, Jeff Keown, George Dixon, Dave Vietmeier, and Denis Meadows. The "Queensman" is a member of the National Scholastic Press Association, Columbia Scholastic Press Association, Duquesne University Scholastic Press, and Quill and Scroll Association.

KNIGHT:

"The human condition, the human experience, the human hope---these are the areas in which we can bear witness."



The task of organizing and co-ordinating the development of the "Knight" was handled by business editor Ed Maziarz and co-editors Ralph Manning and Ron Whitfield.

The '62 Knight is the product of 14 months of preparation. Work was begun in April, 1961, under the former moderator, Brother Robert, and continued by Brother Fidelis of Mary and Brother Henry. The staff, directed by co-editors Ralph Manning and Ron Whitfield, gained valuable experience by working on the '61 Knight, which received a Medalist rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The '62 Knight continued the general format of the two previous editions, which featured a five-color scheme, a modern layout, and bold cover design. The book has been published by Cooke Publishing Company of Philadelphia, and the photographic work was coordinated by Hill's Studio of Pittsburgh.

FORENSICS:

"Study those things that will make you good Catholic leaders in the future."

Providing the depth of this year's team and supplying the potential for further success are underclass members: seated, Patrick Murtaugh, Thomas Mackin, Jim Bridgeman, and Charles Bober. Standing: Paul Schulte, William Gallagher, William Kemper, Daniel McKinley, Clifford Tuttle, and Alan Bombick.

"Clarity of thought and facility of expression so that they may become articulate Catholic youth": the words of the motto of the National Catholic Forensic League are held high in the minds of SHC orators.

Dan Giovannitti, declamation specialist, has won four diocesan trophies, twice placed in the finals at the La Salle College Tournament, and represented South Hills Catholic in the National Catholic Forensic League's National Tournament. Paul Chenot, senior extemporaneous speaker, won a third place trophy and on two occasions placed in the finals in the La Salle Tournament.

Presently the forensic society holds seven trophies and has placed speakers and debators among the top in all competitive categories.

A three year Forensic veteran, senior Dan Giovannitti won a second and a third place trophy and placed among the top seven at the La Salle tournament in oratorical declamation this year. Freshman Cliff Tuttle in his first major tournament captured a second place trophy in original oratory.

Precision of expression is essential to oratory. Paul Chenot and Dale Rettinger consult with Brother Leo on a word definition. Under Brother's guidance Paul and Dale were two of the three SHC orators to place among the top seven in their divisions in the La Salle College Forensics Tournament, January 26 and 27.

BAND: Soft Sounds and Majestic Marching

Filing through band ranks, the Color Guard parades with precision.

Bonfire business preceding the North football classic: Dick Connolly and Bill Delach drum up spirit in a rebel crowd. Throughout the year band energy sparked pep rallies and assemblies.

A pep rally throng attending the second annual rally-dance before the North game tramps with the band through the parking lot to the JV football field where the partisan festivities occurred.

Senior Dan Giovannitti snaps the Drill Team and Color Guard to a rigid attention before a sellout crowd at the North game. Captain of the squad since his freshman year, Dan organized practices, coordinated band-squad maneuvers, and engineered actual performances. Poised for the Alma Mater are, first rank: Frank Muto, Brian Linhart, Fred Cenname, Bob Bozsan and Don Nees; second rank: Dale Rettinger, Paul Buck, Eugene Rees, and Dan Giovannitti; third rank: Chuck Kerrigan, Jim Rebel, and Dave Brody; fourth rank: Pat Ward, Steve O'Donnell, and Bob Wasserman.

Brother Fidelian and Brother Richard, moderators of the band, discuss music for the Spring Music Festival held April 6 and 7 with Mr. Shiner, Mr. Franz, and Mr. Zych. Combined with the Drill Team, the SHC Band and newly organized SHC Gentlemen of Song staged what was to be the first annual performance.

Climaxing the 1962 Marching Band accomplishments, the Spring Music Festival reflected sparkling spirit and superlative effort on behalf of band members, moderators and instructors.

With the transfer of Brother Kenneth to Arlington, Virginia, last June, Brother Fidelian assumed the position of music moderator, assisted by Brother Richard. Experienced instructors Mr. Zych and Mr. Shiner, given seven returning seniors, a number of underclassmen, and a few weeks of band camp, compiled an organized marching assemblage. Brother Neal administered to Dance Band affairs, and Mr. Borelli directed the school orchestra.

The Spring Music Festival occupied but a single slot in the musical year. Periodic participation in student assemblies and pep rallies threaded the band schedule. Half time entertainment presented at the Steeler-49er game on October 29 accented the band's performance at South gridiron games. A May concert tour to Washington materialized from funds raised by the Spring Music Festival.

The Knight-Liters gained local acclaim by performances during the Summer School of Catholic Action at the Penn-Sheraton Hotel. The five senior and six junior members of this group are (front row) Jim McCaffrey, George Hennessy, Leonard Ransil, Richard Sieger, and Richard Reed; (back row) John Thompson, John Seddon, Tom Halloran, Ron Sculimbrene, Bob Wilt, and Douglas Sortino.

On behalf of the Dance Band, Leonard Ransil accepts "The Battle of the Bands" Trophy from His Excellency Bishop John J. Wright at the Diocesan C.Y.O. Convention, October 14. Moderated by Brother Neal, the Knight-Liters outclassed rival North and Central bands.

Originally organized four years ago by Brother Kenneth, the Dance Band presently consists of eleven specialists of the school's general Marching Band. Performances at teen and adult dances, school assemblies, pep rallies, and weddings highlight the Knight-Liters' schedule.

DANCE BAND:

The Knight-Liters

Assisted by Brother Damian and Brother Richard, dance committee members Richard Davis, Joseph Diamond, James Huckestein, Timothy Friedberg, David Antico, and Robert Geddis, make last minute preparations for the dance. Accented by Brother Neal's handling of finances, the dance committee continues to be a vital part of the school social life.

Far reaching preparations go into the bi-weekly school dances. Moderated by Brother Damian and Brother Henry, (front) Ralph Manning, Richard Sica, Thomas Dunham, John Randell, Mark Ratti, Richard Reed, Denis Meadows; (standing) Michael Daley, Michael Kelly, Frank Tetlow, Robert Jardine, Jay Hardman, and Harry Verlato, select records to be used at future dances. Responsibility for preparing the gym, assisting at dances and cleaning up is assumed by committee members.

DANCE COMMITTEE

One of the proudest accomplishments of the 1962 graduating class is the effectiveness of the Student Council. Brother F. Thomas became the moderator after Brother Ronald had prepared the groundwork. Leading the way to maturity in student-faculty relations were officers Roger Nerone and Philip Moreland. On this solid foundation rose a cabinet, network of committees, and a sedulous legislative body, to which the presidents of the individual classes ascribed.

The rejuvenated Student Council sponsored a Thanksgiving Canned Goods Drive, a December Organ Drive, a February Cleanup Campaign, and a March Vocation Week and Poster Contest. It was also responsible for all dances, pep rallies, and student assemblies. The injection of a central theme into these rallies and assemblies established them as memorable events and set a new standard for future programs.

STUDENT COUNCIL: "... to play a Christian citizen's part in the progress of the human caravan."

Introducing the 1961-62 Student Council, whose enthusiasm and leadership produced the most active student organization in the school's brief history: Roger Nerone (President), SSD; Robert Keebler (Vice-President), SCA; Francis Griffin (Secretary), SSC; Philip Moreland (Treasurer), SSA; Denis Meadows, SSA; John Mascaro, SSB; Louis Mango, SSC; Anthony Manzonelli, SSD; William Rodgers, SSE; James Degnan, SCA; Alfred Schipani, SCB; Michael Comerford, SSA; Raymond Foglia, SSA; Raymond Stephens, SSA; Gene Thompson, SSA; Wayne DeLuca, SSA; James Comerford, SSE; James Huckestein, SCA; Kenneth Gianni, JSA; Charles Magnani, JSB; Anthony Falvo, JSC; Robert Marshall, JSD; Richard Machel, JCA; Amel Amado, JCB; Edward Kappler, SA; Terry Doran, SB; Raymond Gergich, SC; Robert DeSantis, SD; George Ferito, SE; Michael Pasko, SF; Richard Nerone, SG; Daniel Ogrodowski, SH; Michael Burns, FA; Douglas Marvin, FB; Brian Buck, FC; Paul Latchaw, FD; Thomas Donahoe, FE; Kenneth McGough, FF; David Snyder, FG; Michael Hobbs, FH.

Gathered in a lofty setting, Spirit Committee members Joe Henderson, Claude Crandall, Wayne DeLuca, Jay Macdonald, Jay Hardman, Ray Stephens, Brother Ronald, Gene Thompson, and Dan Broderick contrive means to generate enthusiasm in the student body for both athletic and non-athletic activities. The Spirit Committee, inaugurated by Brother Ronald and continued by Brother Thomas, sponsored bus caravans, pep rallies, "Locker Talk," and other "Spirit" publications.

Mr. Frank Murphy, school custodian, gratefully accepts a plaque and check from student representative Roger Nerone. The Student Council, under moderator Brother F. Thomas, initiated Cleanup Week which terminated in "Murph" Day. In acknowledgment of his extreme unselfishness, the entire student body presented Mr. Murphy with a standing ovation at a special assembly.

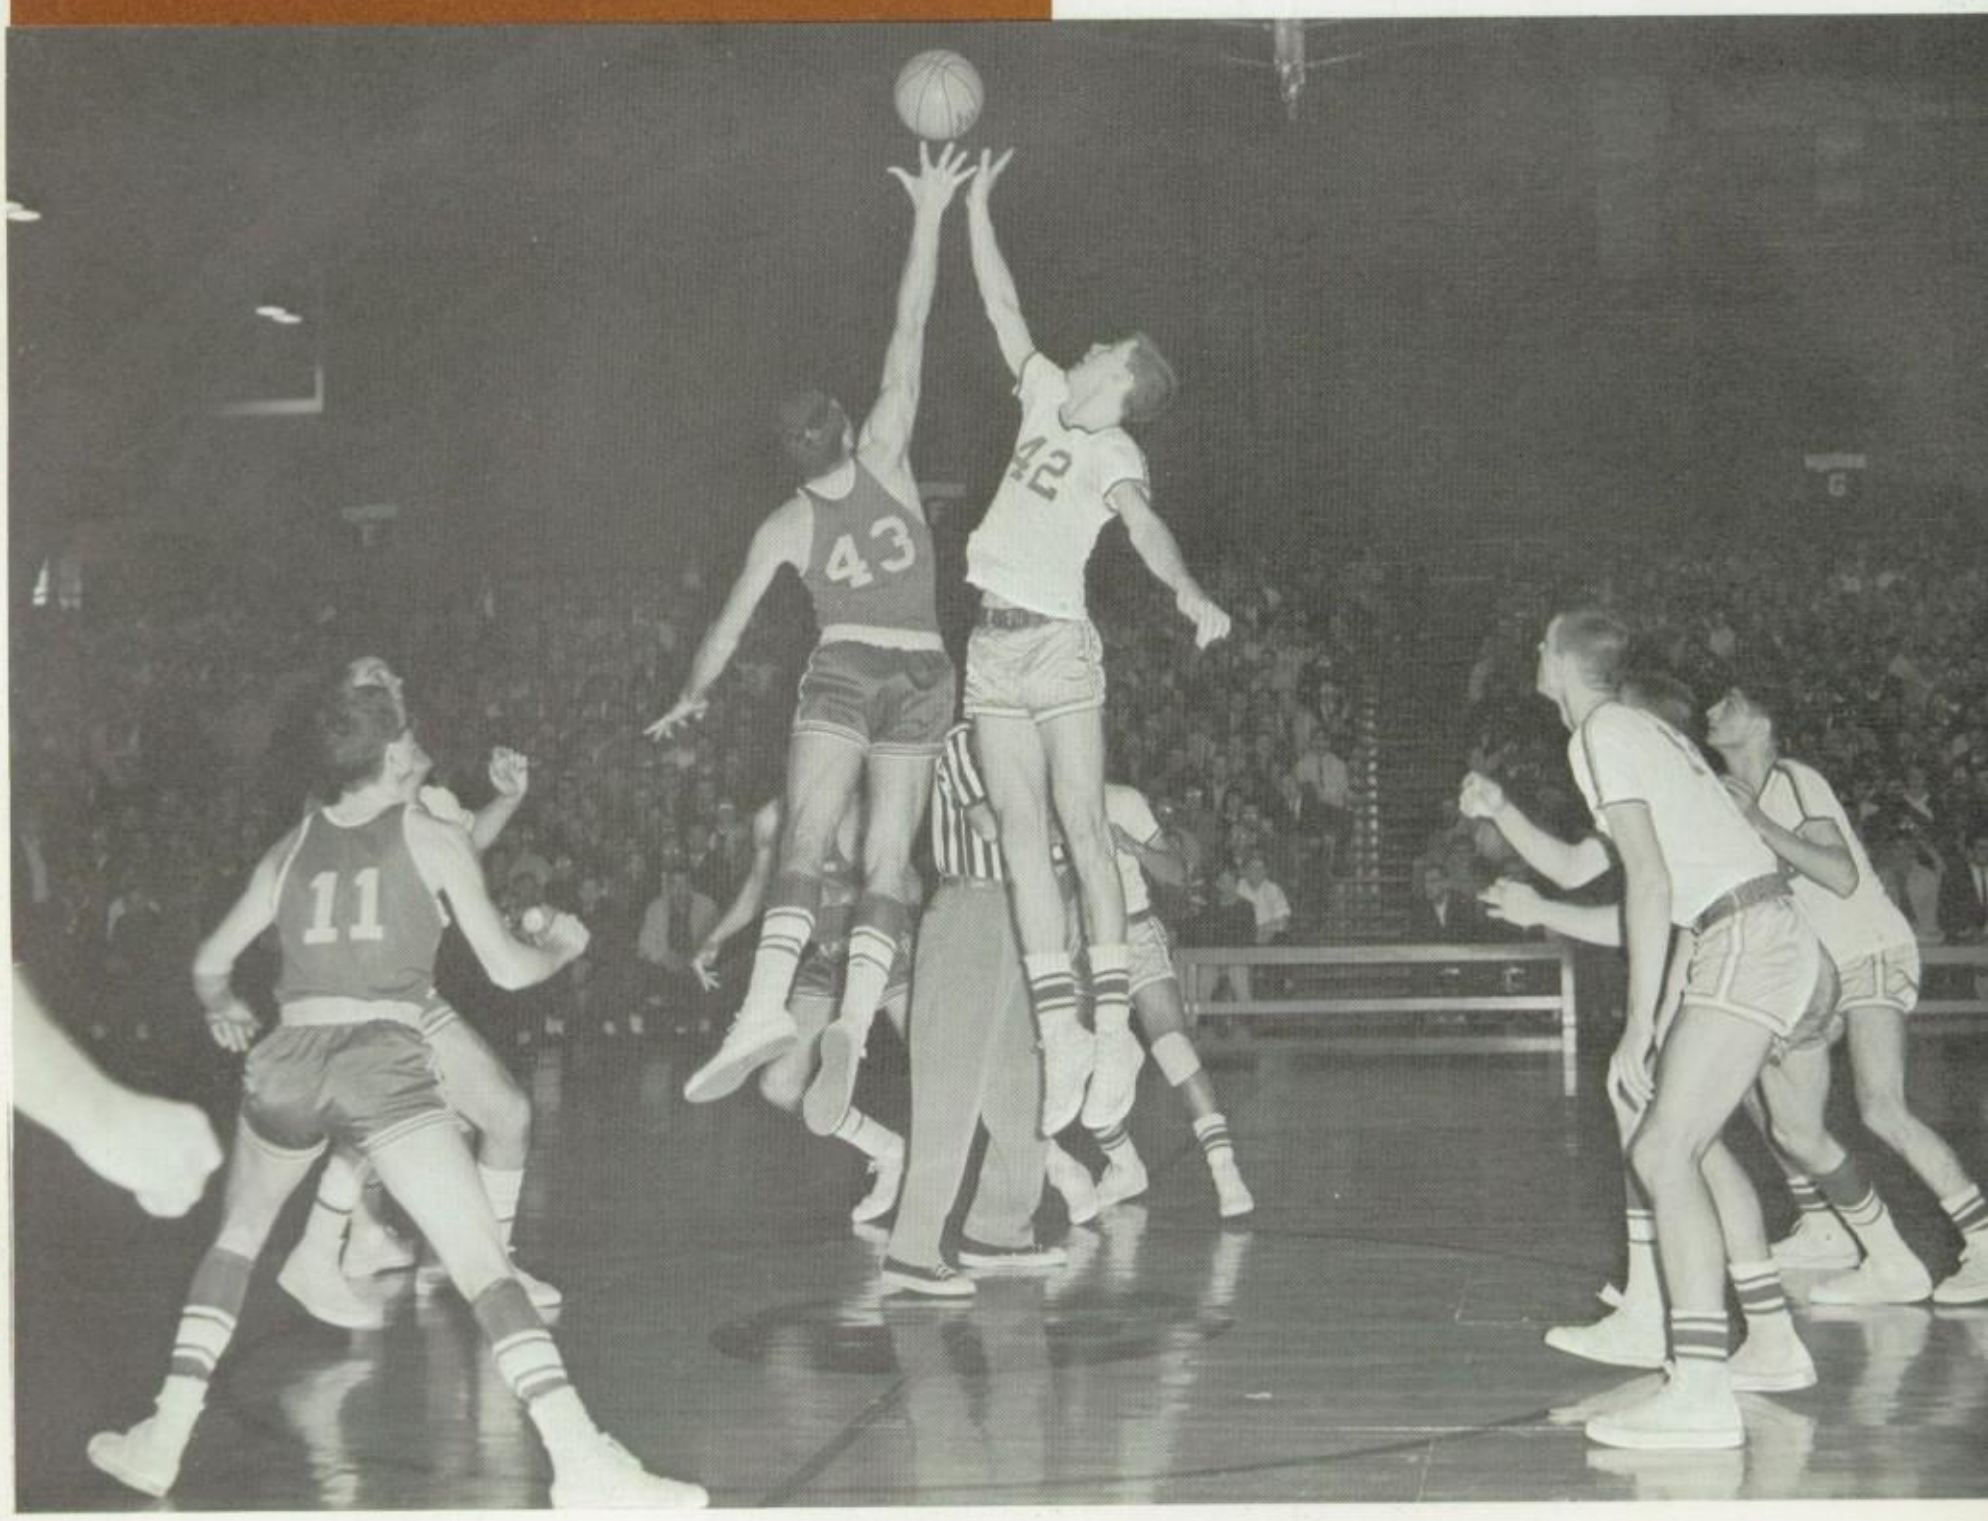
BASKETBALL: Uniting Individual Efforts

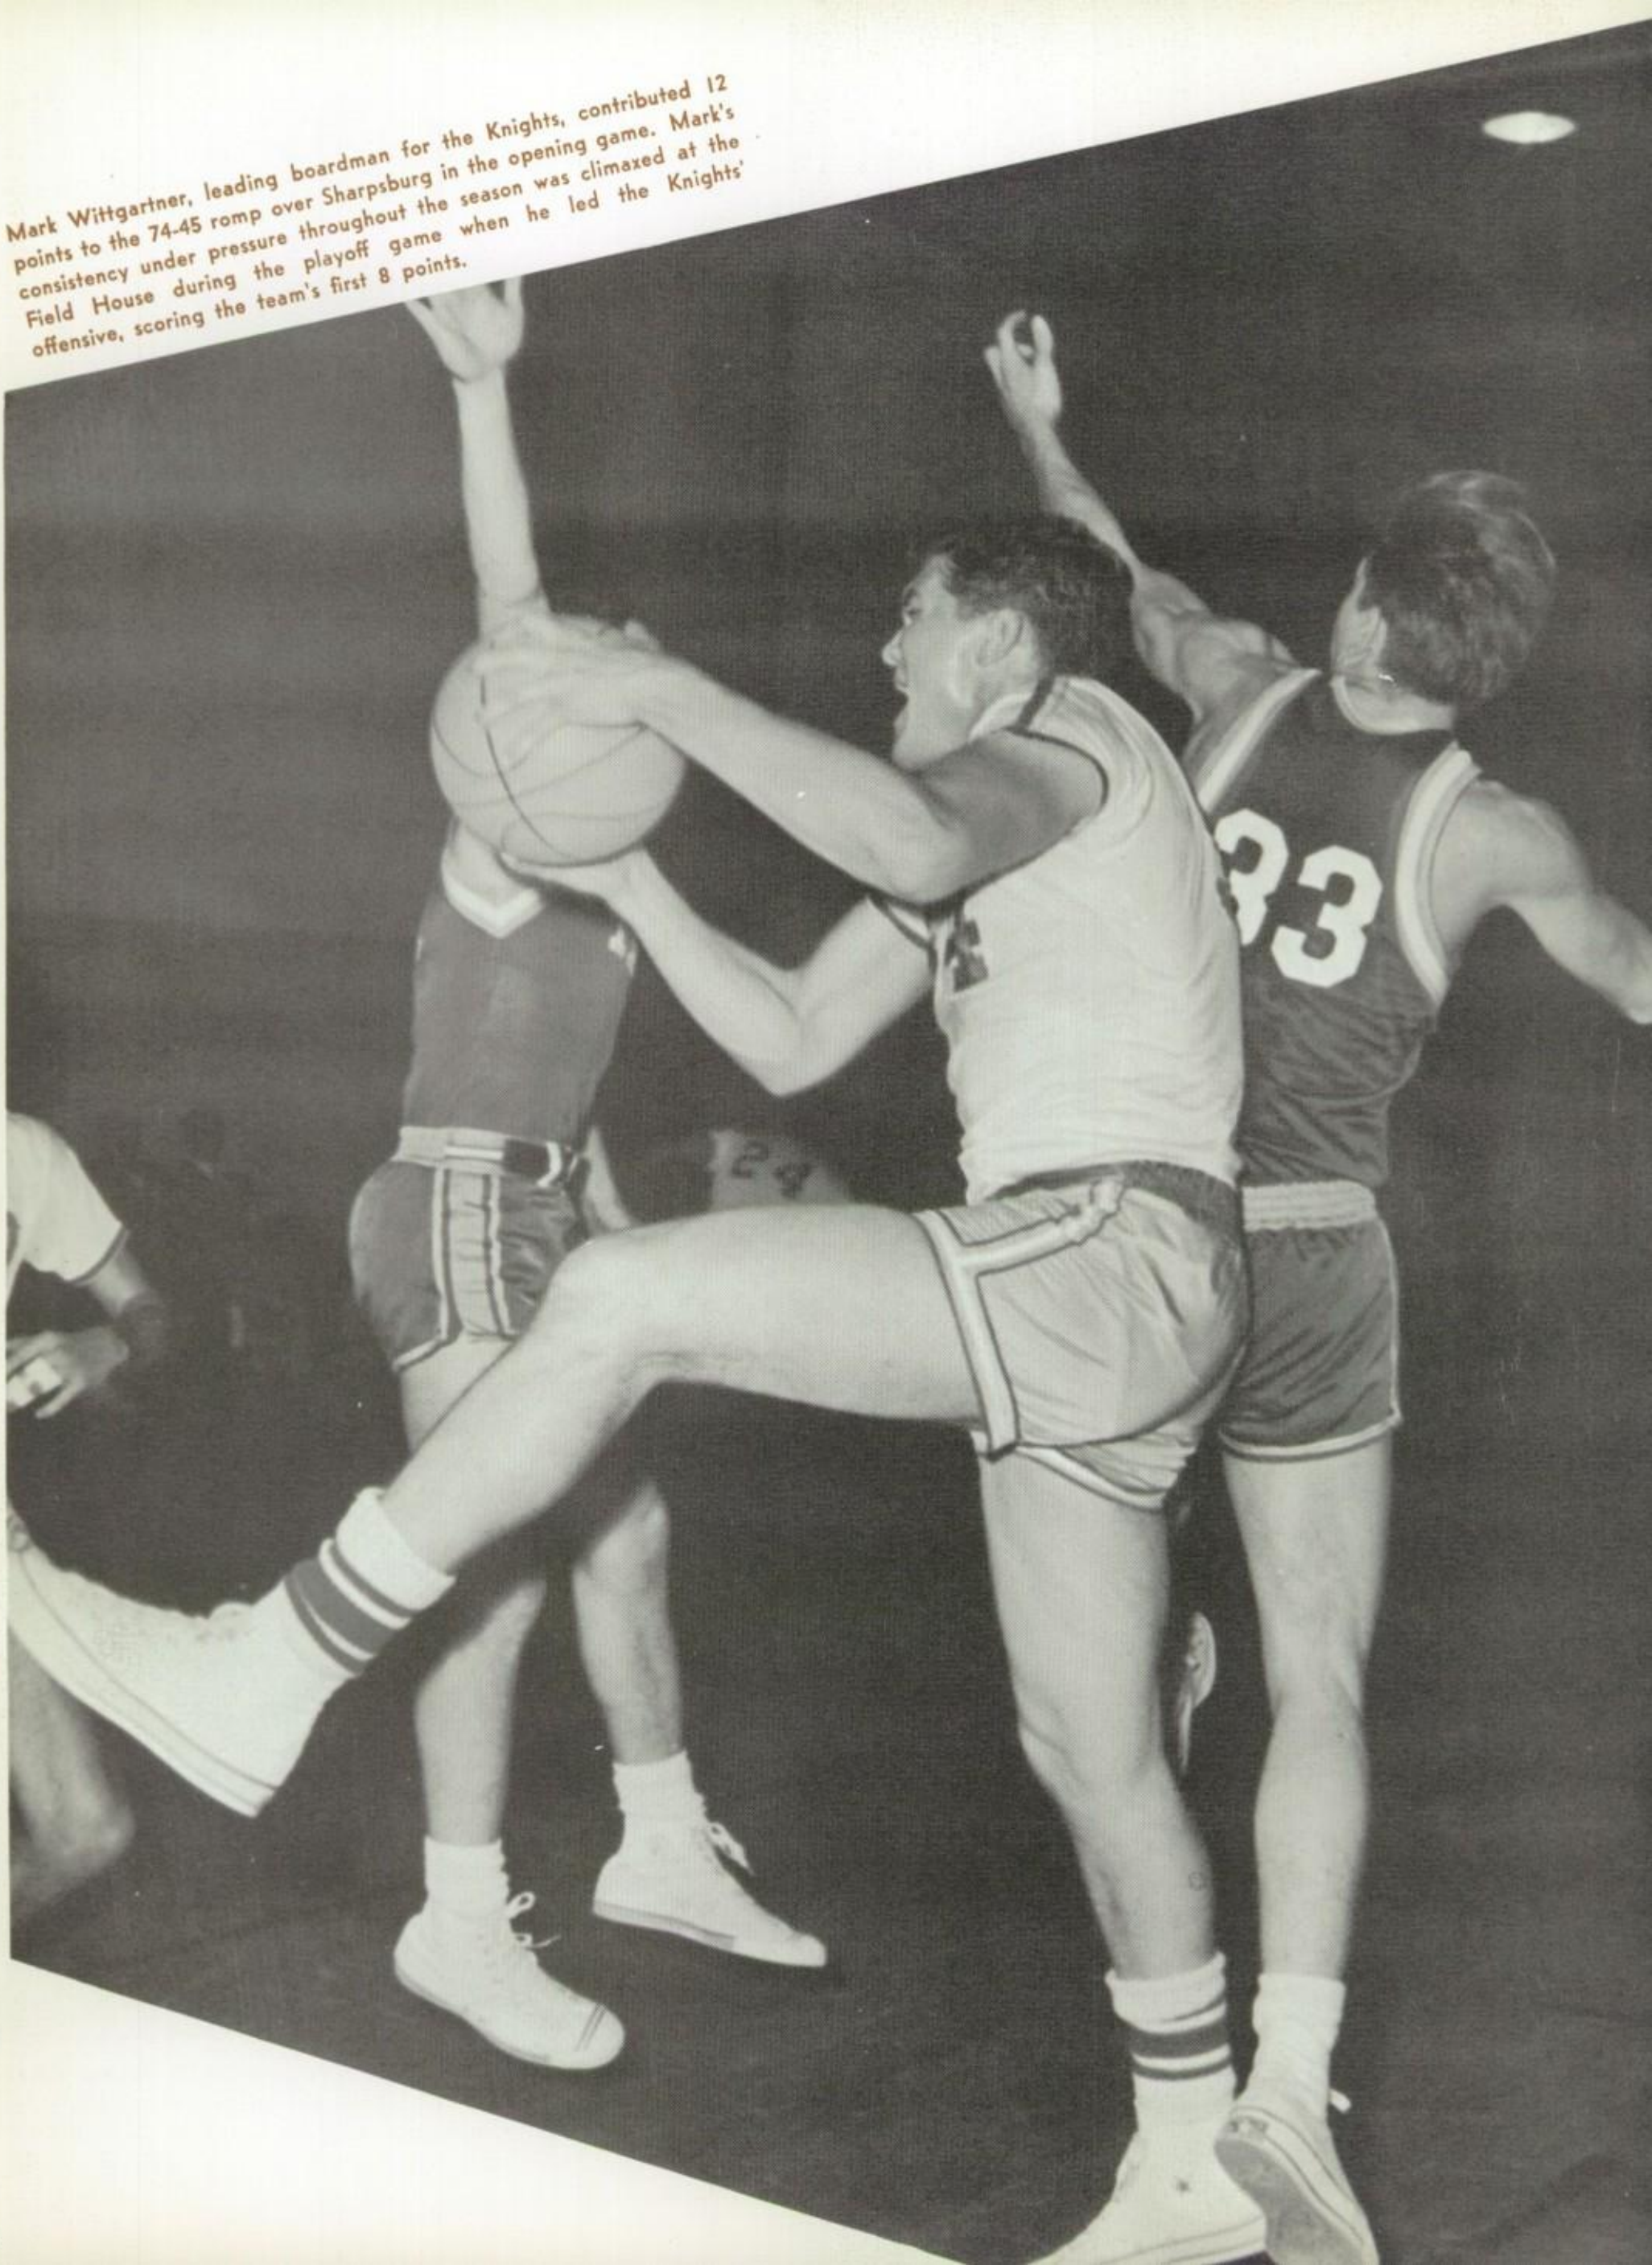
With the largest crowd in South Catholic history at hand, the Golden Knights fought North Catholic's Trojans to a 40-40 deadlock in regulation time. Then behind Fred Luvara's six overtime points, the crowd disbanded deliriously happy, in the wake of a 48-44 victory.

Tom Murphy aims the initial tip to Mark Wittgartner in the City Championship playoff game at the Pitt Field House. Murph's efforts, pulling down rebounds, were not enough to offset North's united board superiority. Fine defensive and powerful offensive play enabled North to sweep the crown from a stunned SHC five, 62-43.



Junior Fred Luvara was the team leader in field goal average with a 44 percentage. His 337 points were second only to Rick Keebler's 451. In the "must" home game with North, Fred hit the cords for 25 points, 6 in an overtime, and gave SHC's title hopes momentary life.

Mark Wittgartner, leading boardman for the Knights, contributed 12 points to the 74-45 romp over Sharpsburg in the opening game. Mark's consistency under pressure throughout the season was climaxed at the Field House during the playoff game when he led the Knights' offensive, scoring the team's first 8 points.



Compiling an impressive record of 22-2, SHC's powerful Rebel Five whipped every WPIAL and PCIAA team they faced, only to suffer two heartbreaking defeats from State Champion North Catholic.

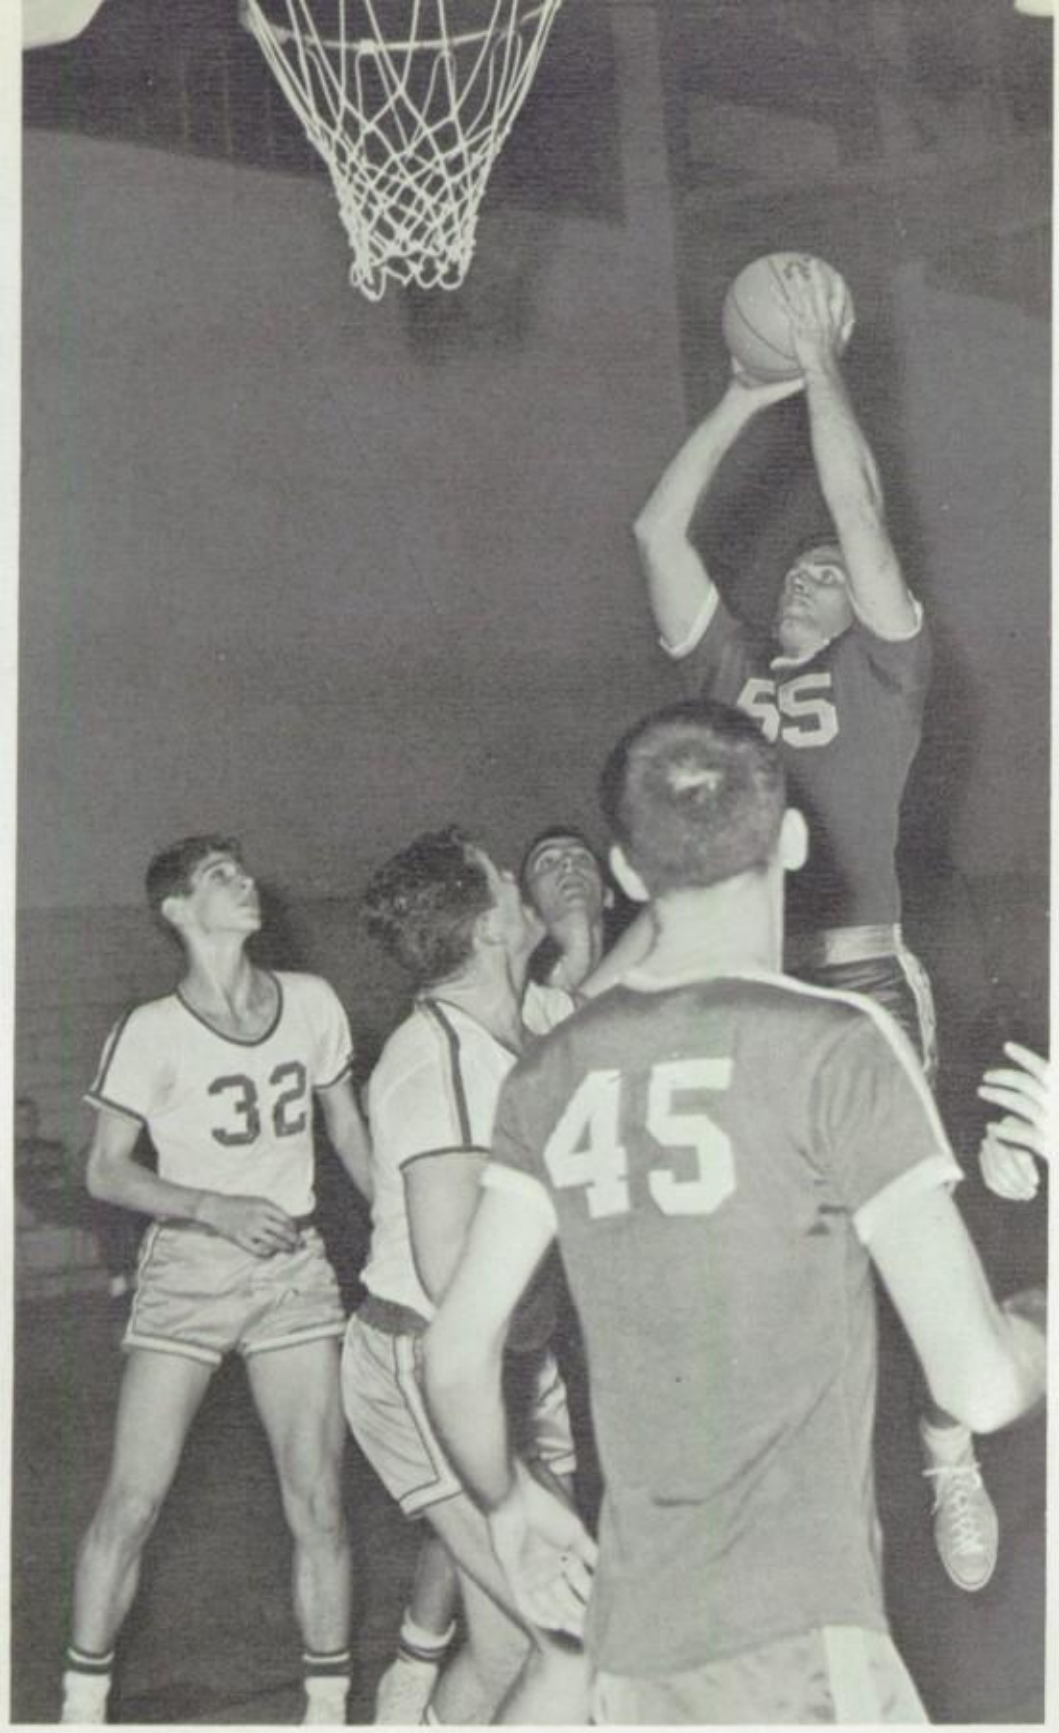
An overconfident squad was upended at Troy Hill in mid-season; the Rebels fought back to clip North at South in overtime, making necessary the decisive, almost annual, playoff game at the Fieldhouse. There, before 4,000, the finest team ever to represent South athletically played absolutely its worst ball game of the season; pitiful shooting marred the contest as the usual high-scoring Knights surrendered the City Crown to the Trojans.

Two other games of note were the come-from-behind efforts against Central Catholic and powerhouse Clairton, which provided the vociferous Rebel fans with thrilling last-minute rallies.

Rick "Goose" Keebler is SHC's proudest product; the hub of the team either led or placed second in every department, setting an all-time school record of 41 points in a single game. But the most reliable hoopster was Mark Wittgartner. Garnering over 260 rebounds, he had a game high of 26. Playmaker Harry Pitchok, with a high of 18, had the least number of personal fouls and trailed only Keebler in assists. Tom Murphy, 6'6" center, was a consistent rebounder with a high of 15.

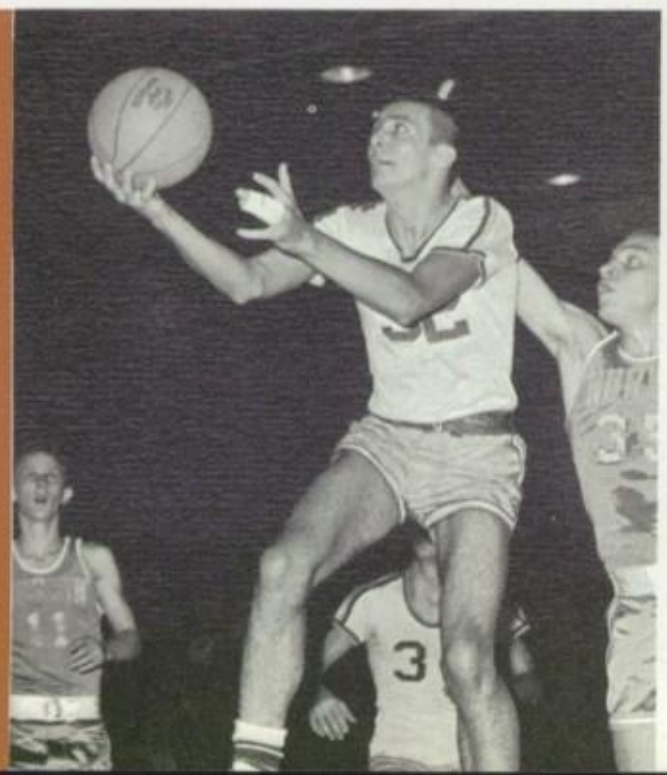
Two juniors complemented these graduating seniors. Fred Luvara had the best shooting percentage with a game high of 26. Sixth man Joe Ayoob gained valuable experience in a tough position; he had a high game of 14.

Both Keebler and Wittgartner were acclaimed as outstanding district players and placed on several regional all-star teams.



Former SHC star hoopster Denny McGroarty, Varsity Football player at the University of Miami, was one of the leading point-makers in the Varsity-Alumni fray. Joe Quinn (45), now attending LaSalle College, along with McGroarty, maintained the team's board strength. A spirited but weakly organized Alumni squad bowed to the superior Varsity, directed by playmaker Harry Pitchok. Final score, 72-55.

The South Catholic Junior Varsity began the season with a victory over a weak shooting Sharpsburg five. Jim Bridgeman and Jack Wall, two decisive rebounders, were aided by Lou Lewin and Dan Maker. The J.V.'s triumph was the kickoff to a commendable 15-6 log under Coach Sparvero.



Rated by Coach Conboy as the best player he has coached, Rick Keebler averaged 20 points a game, led the team in assists with 43, and shot 77 percent at the free throw line. Behind Rick's 23 markers in the Norwin game, the Knights were on the right side of a 66-57 decision.

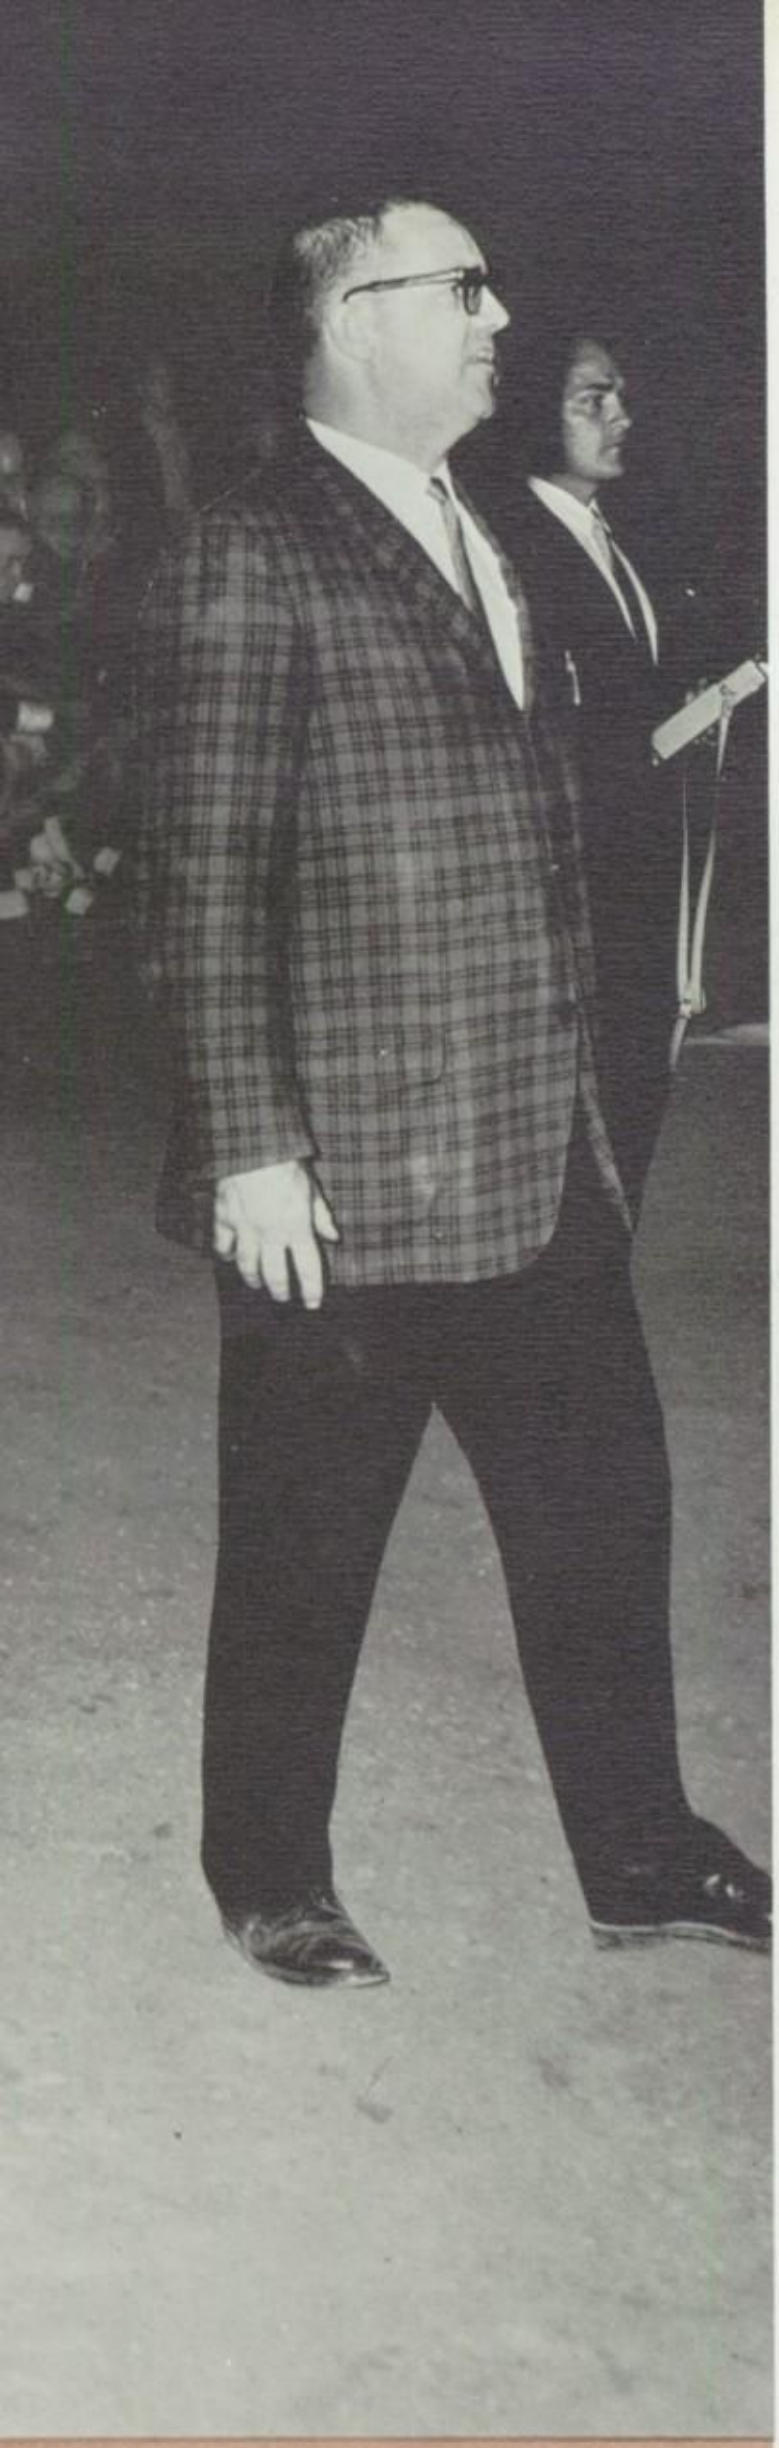
FOOTBALL: Developing Teamwork Through



Self-Sacrifice

Exhausted but still possessing hope, Carmen Grosso, Tony Massaro, Jeff Peck, Dom Fazzone, and Tom Regan dejectedly watch North stride for six more points. Coach Powers relays defensive strategy to Will Rodgers; but the Trojan's new "I" formation and tricky power plays proved too much for South's line, as the Troy Hill boys upset the favored Knights, 20-13.

Cheerleaders Mike Comerford, Claude Crandall, Denis Meadows, Jay Hardman, Sam Sero, Dan Pace, John Randell, Tom Rich, Frank Tripodi, Charles Taylor, and Phil Moreland agitate rebel spirit. In spite of the endeavors of the coaching staff, cheerleaders, and student rooters, the Golden Knights failed to gain the key victories of the season.

Meeting a horde of Beaver Falls tacklers, a Ken Maxcy keeper gains short yardage. After falling a 27-12 victim to Aliquippa, the Golden Knights closed the season with a 4-5 record by yielding to undefeated Beaver Falls, 34-12.

Headed by Rich DesMarais, the underclass staff keeps the team rolling in both practice and competition.

Anxiously Coach Egan awaits suggestions from his colleagues in the pressbox during the second half of the Beaver Falls contest. Scouting teams to be played, reviewing films of the previous week's game, discussing strategy for this week's match, and making decisive judgments during the actual game, these compose the constant pressures which confront the Knights' faithful coaches.

In an outburst of rhythm Senior Commercial A unanimously pledges its thirty-four votes for an overwhelming victory by the Knights over the Vikings. In spite of high rebel motivation and a 13-0 victory over a strong Ellwood City team the previous weekend, South was edged by Central, 13-6.

Muscling their way through the toughest schedule in SHC history, the Green and Gold chalked up a record of four victories and five defeats. Jeff Peck was selected all-city lineman, while Roger Nerone was chosen most valuable player. Twenty-one lettermen will graduate with the class of 1962.

With their usual slow start, the Knights lost to Redstone in the opening game, 7-0. The Green and Gold jelled against Chartiers Valley, 33-20, and then massacred the Spartans from Mon Valley Catholic, 58-6. However, North Catholic ended SHC's title hopes with deception and guts, 20-13. The Rebels rebounded against Ellwood City, 13-0, but Central Catholic outplayed them, 13-6. South trounced Freeport, 39-13; a week later costly mistakes gave Aliquippa a victory, 22-12. The season finale saw powerhouse Beaver Falls roll over the obviously weary Rebels, 34-14.

The Golden Knights showed their faithful followers only brief spasms of expert football action during the season, especially in the Ellwood City and Beaver Falls games. Besides the loss of all-district end Gus Griffin for the entire season, the Knights felt the effects of having seven other first-string gridders out of action at various times.

Introducing the 1961 Golden Knights, a team of great potential whose 4-5-0 record fails to signify its vigor and desire: Front Row (left to right): W. Bowman, J. Gemmell, M. Bernetti, F. Coda, E. Junior cheerleaders Frank Tripodi, Dan Pace and Tom Rich provoke enthusiasm during the evening bonfire before an all-important North game. Through the endeavors of the Spirit Committee in organizing a car caravan and sponsoring buses for away games, and through the efforts of a recently re-organized cheerleader group, school spirit glowed throughout the season.

Roger Nerone, John Gemmell, and Dominic Fazzone dominate action in the South-Central game at South Stadium. Despite a strong running attack, led by Joe Mackewich, the Knights bowed to the Vikings 13-6. This loss, coupled with a previous loss to North, froze all hopes of a city crown for another year. An arm injury acquired in the game by key halfback Dominic Fazzone resulted in a modified backfield, enlisting the services of Pete Lonergan, Dan Darragh, and Ernie Lewis.

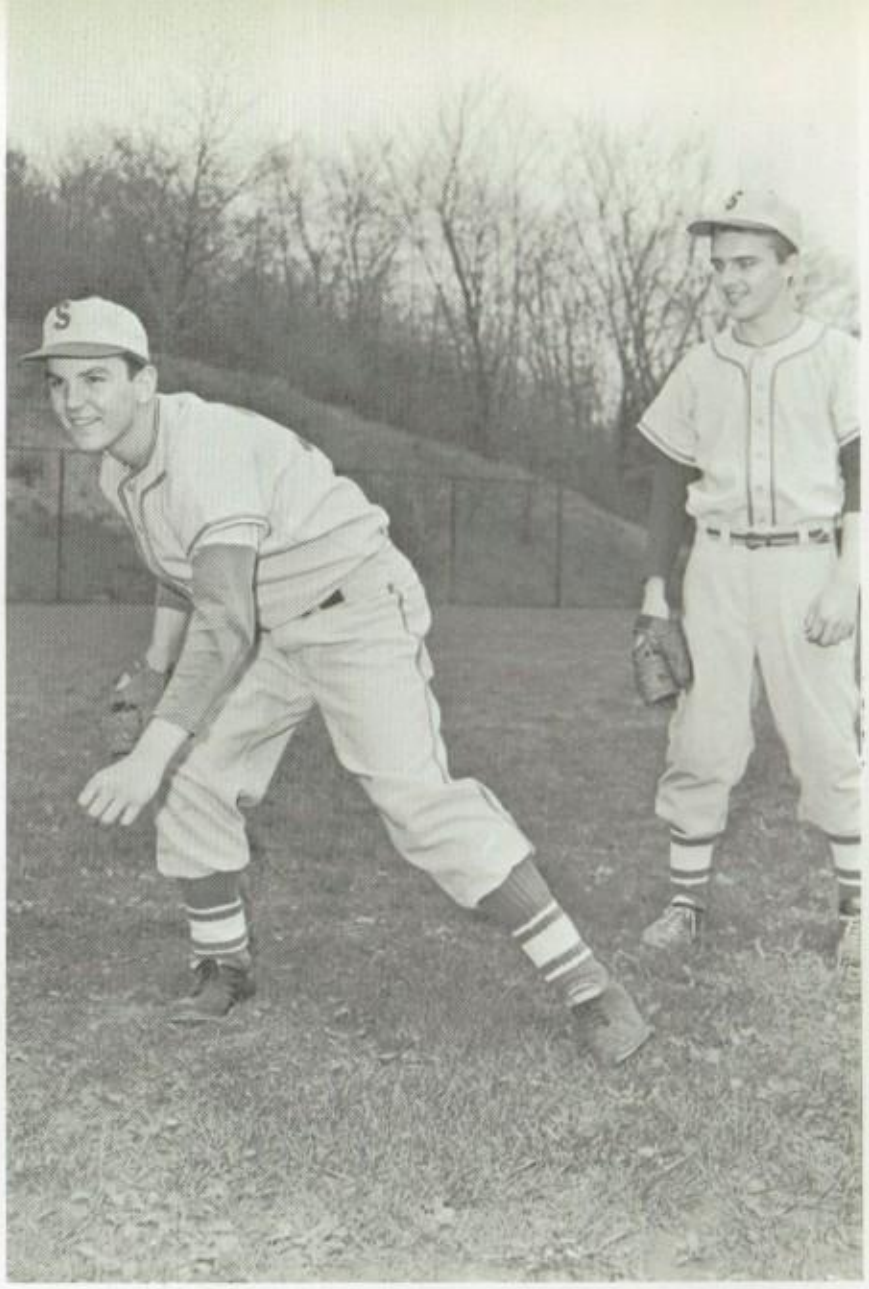
One run kept the 1962 Baseball Squad from its first Catholic City Title. The 1-0 loss to North terminated the season for the knights of the diamond with a 7-4 log. Jerry Conboy, head coach for his fifth year, with the assistance of Coach Bob Connolly, and Moderator Brother Alexis, managed to mold a predominately underclass squad into a winning team.

Outfielders Ray Foglia and Joe Hegedus along with catcher Mike Comerford were the only senior members on the squad. Joe Schratz, the team's most consistent player, occupied the shortstop position. Second baseman Jim Savena set a school record with his 10-game hitting streak. Joe Ayoob at third, and John Ramassini and Ernie Lewis, who alternated at first, rounded out the underclass infield. Underclass outfielders were Rich Bendis and .421 hitter, Fred Luvara.

A trio of southpaws, Bernie Dombrosky, John Ramassini and Ernie Lewis with righty Jack Flavin accomplished most of the Knight mound work. Receiving for these hurlers were Dom Fazzone and Mike Comerford.



Junior southpaws, John Ramassini and Bernie Dombrosky both completed their second full season. Bernie saw limited action while posting a 1-0 record. John, also a substitute at first base, coupled a 2-3 log with an impressive .500 batting average.

Joe Schratz, junior shortstop, was the team's most consistent ball player both offensively and defensively. He led the squad in batting last year, and this season hit a respectable .343.

Joe Hegedus, Mike Comerford, and Ray Foglia were the sole seniors on a predominately junior - sophomore squad. Their combined efforts accounted for a total of ten hits and eight RBI's. Mr. Conboy is head coach; Brother Alexis is moderator.

CROSS COUNTRY

Dave Seery, Paul Hogan, Phil Snee, Mike Buerkle, Rich Crouch, Merle Maffei, and Jim Haller jog around the track during an after-school practice. Hogan holds the school cross-country course record of 12:42; Sophomore Crouch ran a 12:44.

Brother Eric Martin presents the cross-country Most Valuable Player trophy to Paul Hogan. Paul also excelled in track. He is the Catholic champion in the 880 and finished 6th in state competition with a school record time of 1:59.8.

Conrad Dugan receives the baton from Mike Kelly in the mile relay during the Central meet at Schenley Oval. Lack of depth again spelled SHC's doom as the Green and Gold went down to defeat 48¾—78¼.

Steve Lacey is the Catholic League Champion in the pole vault with a record-breaking leap of 10' 3". Steve also competed in the broad jump with John Thompson.

Jim Degnan is SHC's State Champion. He won a coveted gold medal in the 120 high hurdles with 15.0. Jim is the Catholic champ in the 120 high hurdles and the 180 low hurdles, the latter with a record time of 20.4.

John Gemmell holds the City Catholic gold medal for the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.3. A heavy blow was struck to the team during the State Championships when John injured his back in the trials.

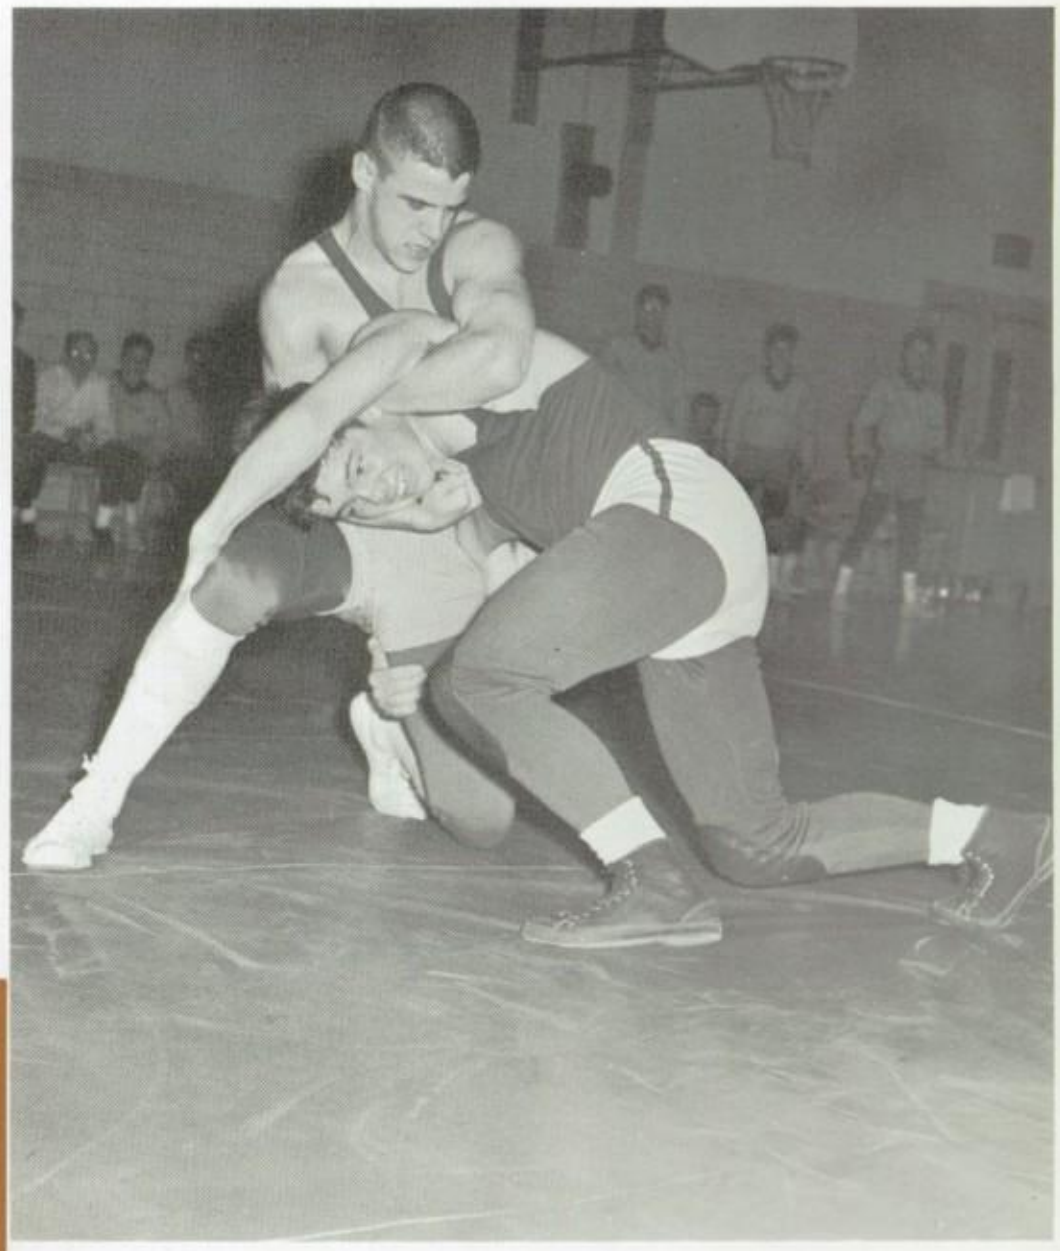
WRESTLING

Replacing Ex-coach Bernard Powers, Coach Joe Wirth molded a group of inexperienced underclassmen and experienced seniors into a well-balanced squad. The team was led by undefeated co-captains Roger Nerone and Tony Manzonelli, and was backed up by Bob Gibson (8-1), Tom Regan (9-3-1), and Howie Fisher (10-3). Throughout the season victory hung upon the ability of the upper weight grapplers to overcome the deficit left by the inexperienced lower weight wrestlers. The team was outclassed only once, by a well-polished Baldwin squad. The suspense caused by two undefeated wrestlers and the promise of witnessing an exciting match drew the overwhelming support of the student body.



Roger Nerone, counteracting an attempted take-down, works effectively against his Fort Cherry opponent. Roger's victory in this match preserved his unblemished record in the 165 pound class.

Joe Madia, Jeff Coda and Jim Carey congratulate Tom Regan after his impressive victory over George Iddings in the Dormont match. Tom's 10-3 record in the 145 pound class added strength to the upper weight division. ▶

Brother Charles demonstrates the proper grip for the backhand delivery to Dan Lavezolli. Watching for pointers are Lou Biscardo, who returned this year from an inactive junior year, and Rich Sica, the team's most consistent scorer.

Captain Skip Trapp, sporting a season average of 143, sizes the situation during his approach in a pre-game practice. Varsity members, Rich Sica, Dan Lavezolli, Lou Biscardo, and Herb Buettner, joined forces to spark the team average of 650. Bob Bytheway held a season average of 133, while Bob Marculaitus had an average of 140.

BOWLING

Paul Schad rolls in a J.V. match against Central Catholic. South's 3-0 victory in this contest contributed to a season record of 43-17. Seated are Hilary Wertz, Earl Kelly, Tom Sitowski, Jim Bowman, and three Central squad members. Standing are Jim Farmerie, Brother Charles, Jim Boggs, and Mike Machi.

In 1961, the varsity squad successfully completed the season by copping the Roberts' Tournament trophy, while the J.V. team placed third in the Catholic Diocesan League with a 28-11 record. This year, the varsity held a 38-22 record at the close of the season, while the J.V. squad finished with a 43-17 slate. Captain Skip Trapp held an average of 143 and Rich Sica maintained a 141 season average. Under the moderation of Brother Charles, these weekly bowling matches took place at Knox Court Alleys.

RIFLE CLUB

During the past year junior Robert Marshall was one of the most consistent scorers on the team.

Dave Choby reviews his score in the Mt. Lebanon match. South's squad faltered in this contest, however, despite the backing of teammates Dennis Neuser, Donald Hoffmann, Tom Fitch, and Bob Geddis, with their averages of 92, 92, 96, and 96 respectively.

The rifle squad was organized in the spring of 1959 under the supervision of Brother Benignus and Coach Cicco. This club was formed not only for talented marksmen, but also to provide instruction to the layman on the proper and safe use of a rifle. In January of the following year, the rifle range was completed and the members of the rifle team were selected. In 1961, the squad finished the season with a 6-9 record. Currently, this club is under the moderation of Brother Neal, who is assisted by President Tom Fitch, Vice-President Bob Geddis, Treasurer Dave Choby, and Secretary Don Hoffmann.

Brian Linhart sights in the telescope at the rifle range. Bill Harris, Bill Beuter, Philip Caliguire, and Paul Davis all maintain averages in the low nineties.

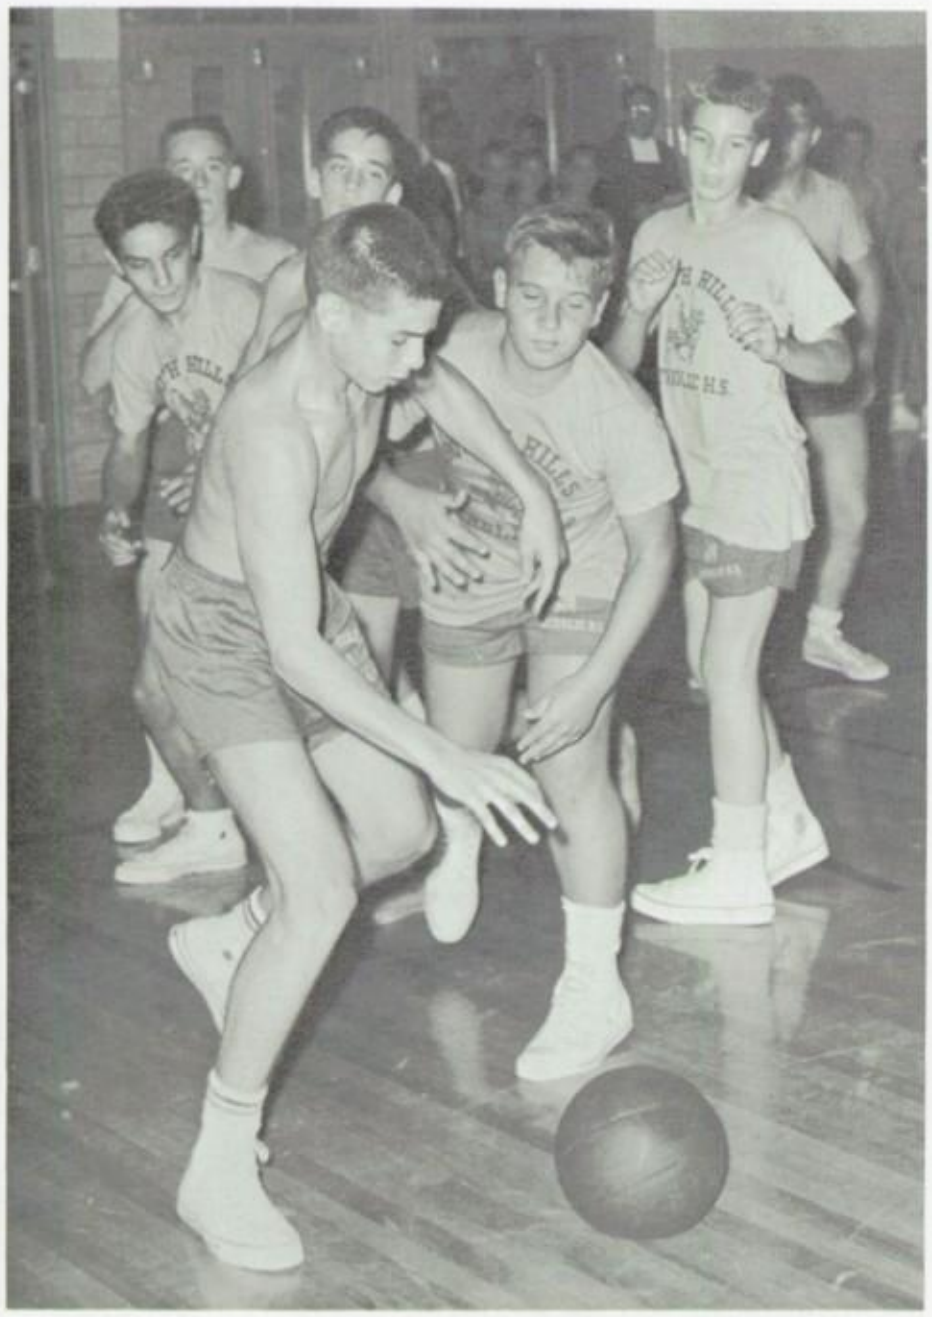
Lack of team depth resulted in a record of one win and six losses for this year's swimming team. Coached by Brother Francis Bernard, the team practiced weekly at the Irene Kaufmann Center. High point man for the team was Rich Kilburg of Soph A. The team is relying on underclass members to fill the vacancies left by three seniors.

Mike Kelly of SSB, 100 yard freestyler, scored a season total of 36 points. Mike scored seven points in the sole victory of the season at South Public High when a 51-35 point tally brought the Knights out on top.

FRESHMAN INTRAMURALS



Dan Staub of FC controls the action in the opening Freshman basketball contest, which saw FC top FD. John Collins, FD; Phil Kravec, FD; Grant Kniedler, FC; Bob Rusnack, FD; and Edward Abram, FD; converge on the play.

Basketball:

With varsity playmaker Harry Pitchok as coach, FB showed its superiority over all opposing Freshman intramural teams by compiling a perfect 7-0 slate. Led by Steve Murphy, FB defeated a stubborn FE squad by a one point margin in a double overtime.

Bowling:

In the Bowling League FE retalliated by capturing the championship with an overwhelming 32-2 log. The "Ironmen" were led by Bob Rodrigues and Tom Abraham.

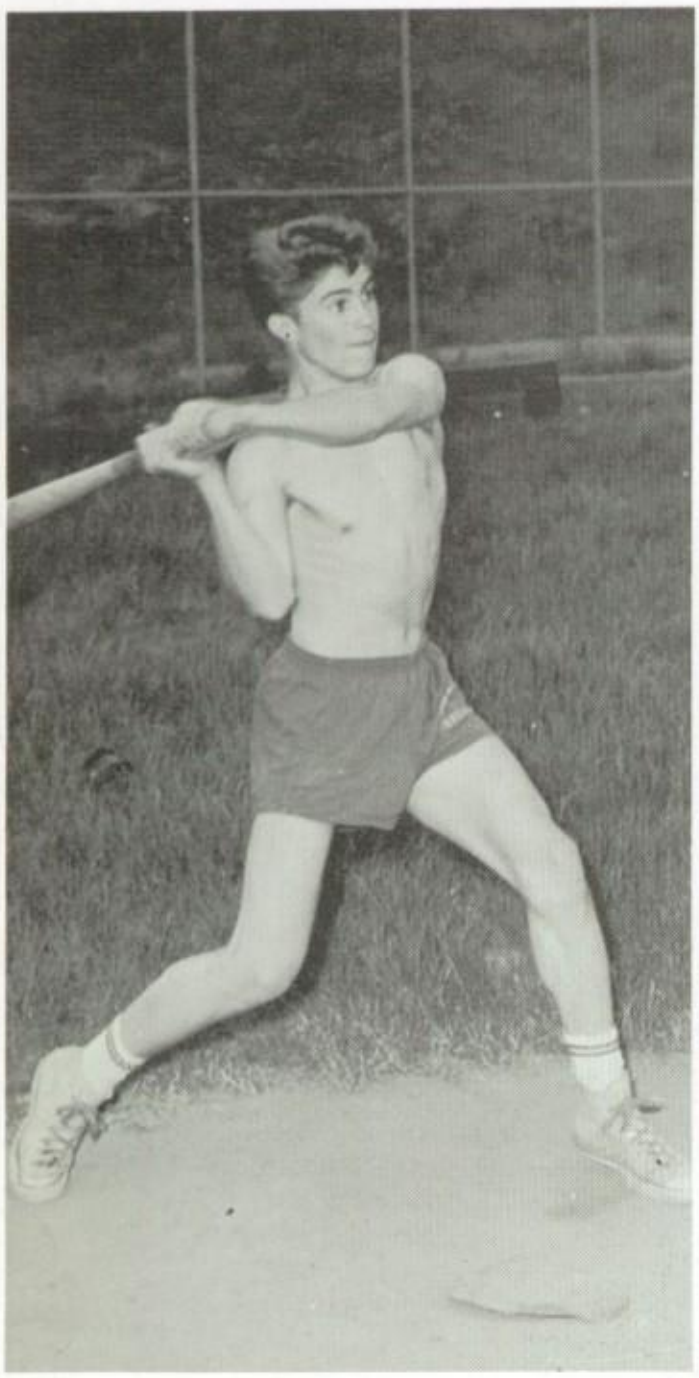
JUNIOR INTRAMURALS

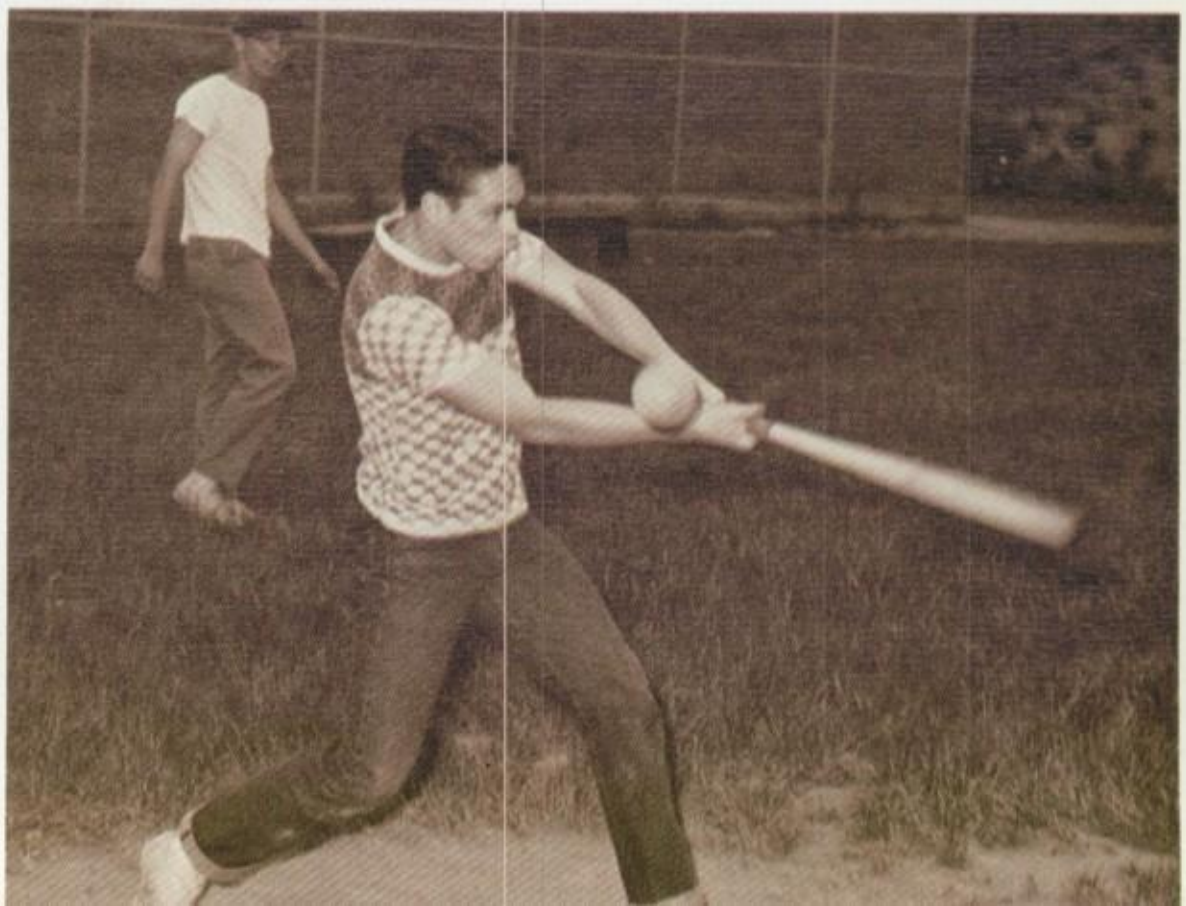


In Junior Softball Intramural competition, Jim Tippmann of JSD gave his room its first tally by hitting a first pitch home run. His team, however, was eliminated by JSA, 24-4, in the playoffs.

Bill Pryor, Sandy Jones, Bob Mould, and Tom Bowman participate in the championship roll-off game between JSA and JSC at Mt. Lebanon Lanes. JSA easily became champions. Brother Charles moderated the bowling intramurals, as well as the interclass basketball and softball.

Receiving their trophy awards at the April 14 assembly are JSA bowling champs Howard Pryor, Steve Walker, Tom Bowman, Ron Bombick, and Mike Markey. JSC was their closest rival throughout the season.

Don Gmitter of JSA pulls down a decisive rebound in the intramural contest with JCB. Breaking down court for a fast break are Ken Gianni, Jim Romanowski, Bill Bonenberger, Steve Walker, Jack Helbling, John Ramassini, and Tony Popoloskie. JCA, with an undefeated season, took the junior intramural championship.



Al Loper of JSA put together some timely hitting (not evident here) and fancy fielding to help his class to the junior championship. The title holders defeated JSD, 24-4; JCA, 6-5, and JSC, 15-6. Adrian Stout of JSA gets set for his turn at bat.

Members of SSA receive their intramural basketball trophies from Coach Conboy: Ron Whitfield, George Trapp, Pete Lonergan, Ray Foglia, Mike Comerford, Ralph Manning, Larry Kwasniewski, Rich Sica, and Joe Hegedus. Victory during the senior year made it the third annual basketball championship for the "A" class. The same class added luster to a successful season by winning its second softball championship in four years.

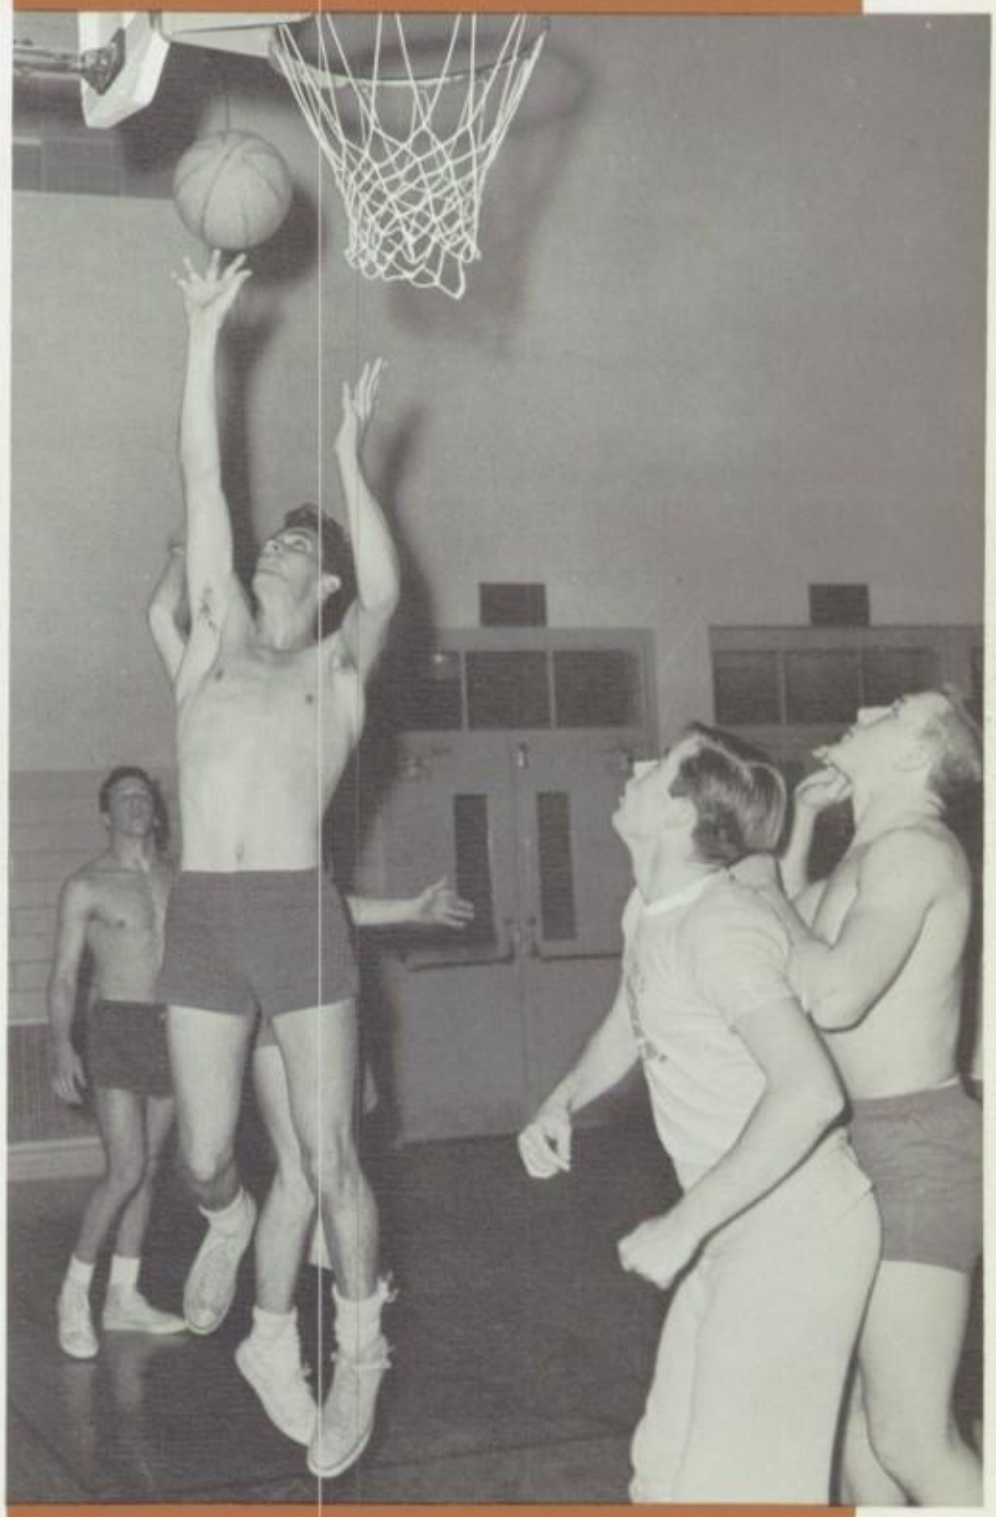
SENIOR INTRAMURALS

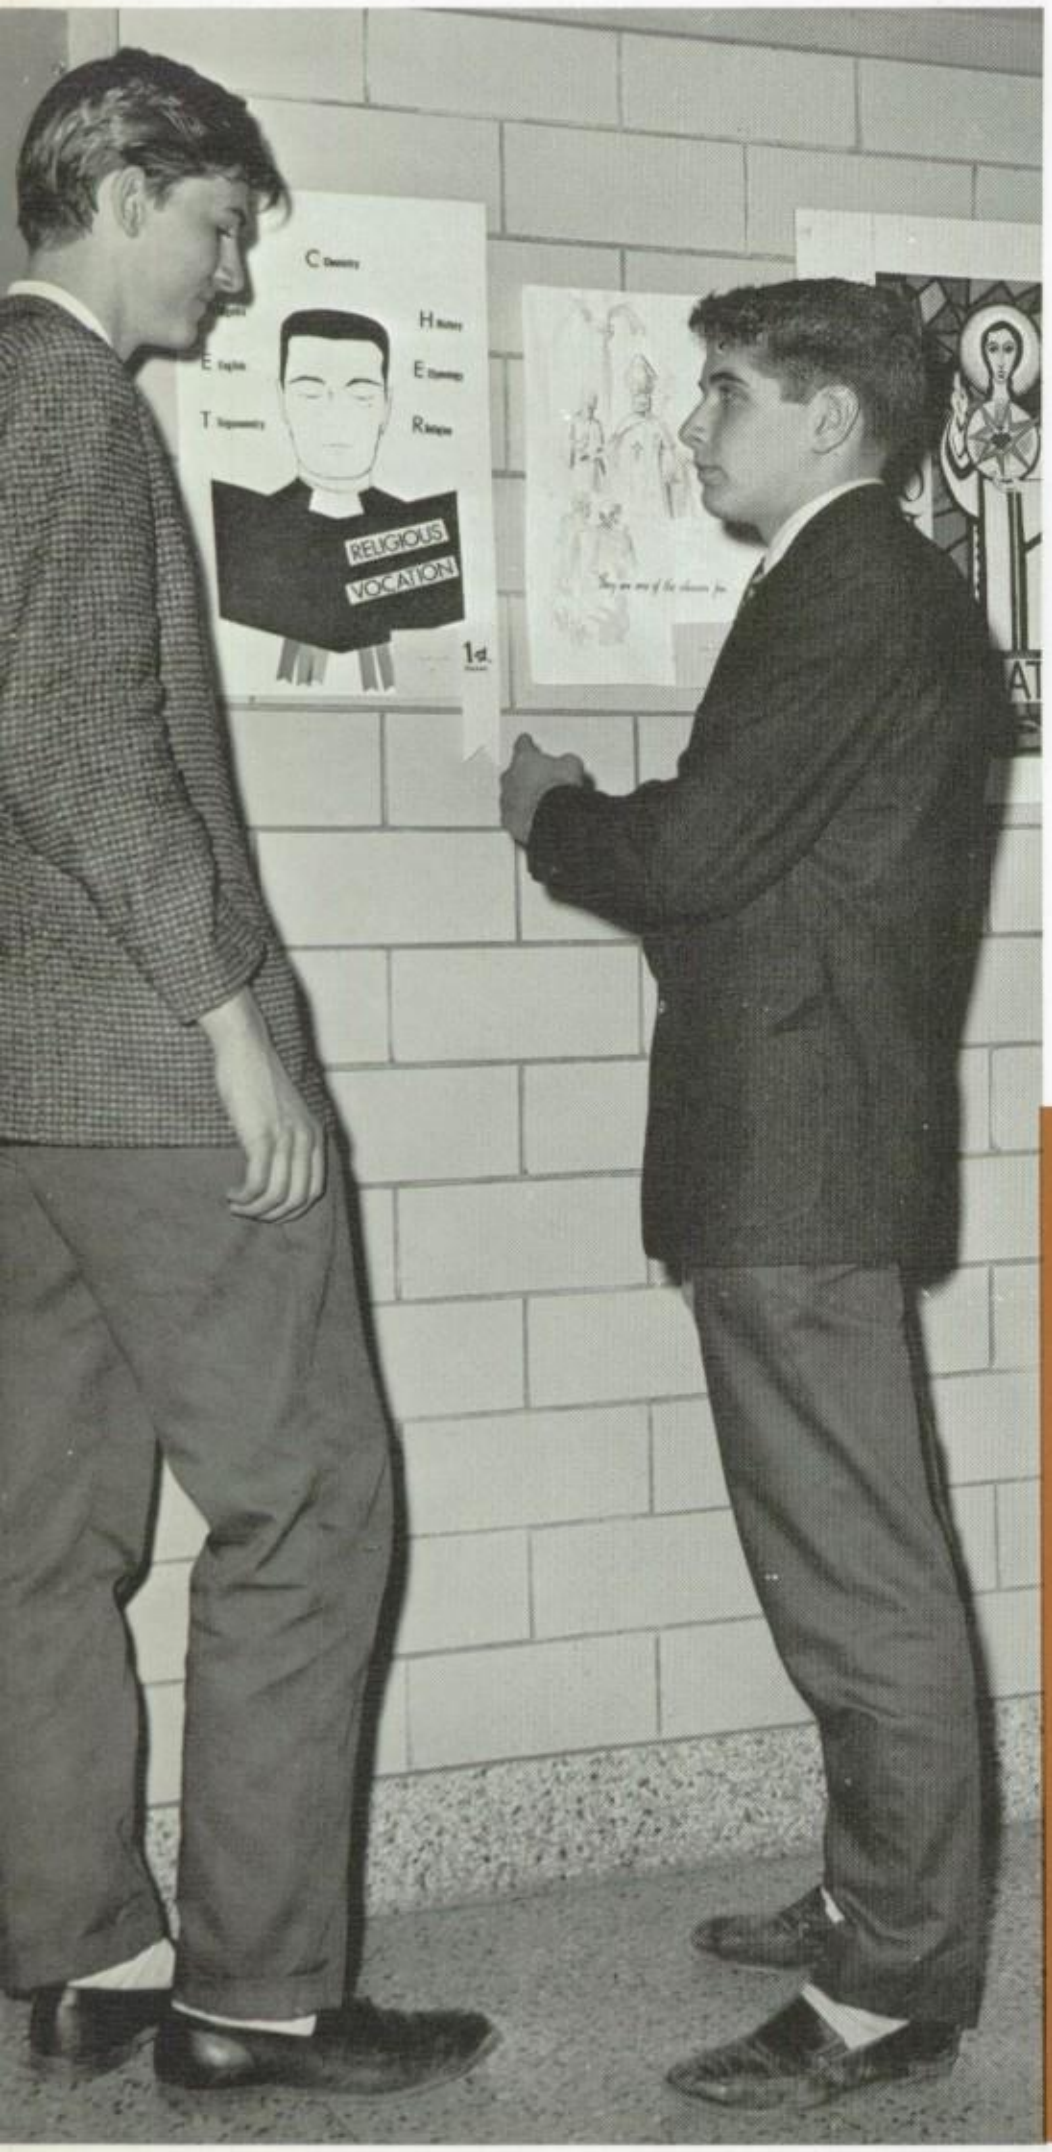
In a cutthroat, sudden death, elimination softball series, SSC crushed the hopes of SSE, 15-6. Eventual SSC victors Jeff Peck, Gus Griffin, Joe Fromm, and Dave Rees observe the anxious stance of teammate Sam Morasca. Jim Renziehausen of SSE is catcher. All classes, however, finally bowed to champs, SSA.



Rich Colvin SSD, Jerome Hogan SSB, and Tom Fierle SSD converge under Terry Schohn's lay-up. Even though SSD placed Schohn and Caslin on the intramural All-Star team, SSA ultimately emerged as basketball champions.

SENIOR RETREAT:

"... withdrawing periodically for that thinking in the heart without which the world grows desolate."



Robert Housel was one of the two hundred and fifty seniors who made a two-day retreat at St. Paul's Monastery.

Harold Leonard and Sam Easton were senior department winners of first and second prizes respectively in the vocation poster contest. The contest was held in conjunction with the 1962 Vocation Week from March 19 to 23. Holy Mass, Benediction, vocational talks and films were held to encourage vocations to the religious life and the priesthood.

Clyde Knorr, Jay Hardman, Paul Kubiak, and Ray Rau sample some monastery cooking. Each senior class had a two-day opportunity in early May to appreciate monastic life, while participating at Holy Mass, discussions and conferences.

Paul Kubiak, Clyde Knorr, Jay Hardman, and Ray Rau chat informally with Father Gerard and Father Cornelius. Father Gerard supervised the retreat functions and Father Cornelius handled personal consultations.

SENIOR GRADUATION, 1962

John McGrail of SSB and Leo Kelly of SSC were hospitalized during the graduation ceremonies. Brother Giles Vincent, Brother Bernard, and Brother Alfred comfort John and his mother. Brother Alfred presented diplomas to John and Leo in their hospital rooms.

Monsignor Davin offered the Baccalaureate Mass on Friday, June 1, at St. Bernard's Church. Monsignor Joseph E. Schieder delivered the sermon, daring the graduates to live a Christian life in an amoral world. The Brothers' Choir sang the high Mass. The ceremony was appropriately closed by the graduates with a solemn consecration of themselves to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The graduation exercises were held on Sunday, June 3, at the Penn Theatre. Brother Alfred conferred the diplomas and Brother Bernard distributed various special awards. Dan Giovannitti gave the salutatorian address and Charles Taylor was valedictorian. Father Eugene Harkins, pastor of St. Anne's parish, presided. Brother Giles Vincent, first principal of SHC, was guest of honor and addressed the graduates on the necessity of adhering to proper values in a materialistic world.

"Dare to be different in this age of socialism and collectivism and reduction to dead level. Dare to be God-like in this age of pale humanitarianism in which we are asked to go along with every Tom, Dick, and Harry on the grounds that he is just as good as the rest of us if he has a birth certificate. Dare to rise above least common denominators."

"... raising up Christian intellectuals with that historical perspective and vigorous faith which enables them to accept all times as God's times."

"Our schools are turning out people who, whatever their work may be, have authentic intellectual interests; they love music and like to read; they enjoy conversations and ideas which I take to be the joy of the intellectual.

"I think the Catholic community is producing people who properly subordinate their intellectual life to their total personal life, as they subordinate their economic life, sometimes in a manner which seems heroic, to their total personal life, and as they subordinate, or try to, everything to the total business of personal perfection and of service to God in this world that they may be happy with Him in the next."
